

Checking Marks on Moodle:

3 weeks after submission, you should be able to check your marks and comments on Moodle.

1 Go on Moodle.

2 Select a module

3 Click on the assignment

4 you will see your mark and similarity (plagiarism) report. To see your comments, click on the blue pen

Submission Title	Turnitin Paper ID	Submitted	Similarity	Grade
View Digital Receipt   Test	75036978	25/08/17, 11:28	0%	99/100

This will open your Turnitin submission in a new page where you will see your mark and comment

Comments can also be in the essay itself in speech bubbles.

The screenshot shows the Moodle Turnitin submission interface. At the top, the user is identified as Sarah Konate, and the grade is 99/100. The page title is "Submitting coursework and dissertations on Moodle". A list of instructions is provided, with the first instruction being "Log on to Moodle and click or search and select the module concerned. For dissertations go to Fundamentals Dissertation and Research." Below this, the "MY MODULES" section is visible, showing the user's current module: "EC877 Brussels AUT: International Economics (2017/2018)". A red box labeled "Feedback summary" points to the right-hand side of the page, where the "Instructor Feedback" section is located. Another red box labeled "In text comments" points to a blue speech bubble icon next to the module name. A third red box labeled "Improper Citation" points to a blue speech bubble icon next to the "Improper Citation" link. A fourth red box labeled "Commonly Confused" points to a blue speech bubble icon next to the "Commonly Confused" link. The page also includes a "View Rubric" button and a "Text Comment" section with a "0" score. The bottom of the page contains a notice about Turnitin's End-User License Agreement.
