13. A synopsis of the curriculum:

This module is designed at an intermediate level of dancing within the genre of Contemporary Dance. Through this module the student will be able to continue with advanced, pre-professional and professional levels of study of this genre through the remaining three semesters of study. The student begins to engage with greater diversity, range, and complexity of movement material than was the case in earlier modules dealing with this genre.

14. Indicative Reading List:

15. Learning and Teaching Methods, including the nature and number of contact hours and the total study hours which will be expected of students, and how these relate to achievement of the intended module learning outcomes

The student receives five Contemporary Dance classes a week of one and a half hours each. There is also an observed test class. Other styles of Contemporary Dance may also be explored, given the usage made of these by the profession.

The below table indicates hours of study for each teaching & learning method and the specific and generic outcomes addressed by each:

16. Assessment methods and how these relate to testing achievement of the intended module learning outcomes:

Marks, written comments, and a fifteen minute tutorial focusing on the student’s progress and the marks awarded are given at the end of each semester. Written comments are given in relation to the five criteria for dance technique: movement quality, musicality, stage presence, commitment/empathy/cooperation, and dance technical ability. Page two of the feedback form gives a descriptor for each of the criteria plus the overall mark.
