The University of Kent is exploring options to develop postgraduate programmes at our Tonbridge Centre for 2016, and will be holding several information events to evaluate demand.

The information events will be of interest to anyone with a passion and motivation to develop their knowledge in the following subjects:

- History of Art
- English and American Literature
- Creative Writing

Thursday 30 April: two sessions, either 15.00-17.00 or 18.00-20.00
- History of Art
- English and American Literature
- Creative Writing

Saturday 16 May: 11.00-13.00
- History of Art
- Professional Practice*

Each event will provide information about the subjects, fees, funding and study support. Light refreshments will be available.

Professional Practice
This flexible postgraduate certificate builds on your existing work experience and qualifications to further your professional development, allowing you to broaden your expertise while gaining a recognised qualification to help progress your career.

The Postgraduate Certificate in Professional Practice will be available in Tonbridge from September 2015, and is currently open for applications.

What next?
To find out more and book your place at a Tonbridge Centre postgraduate information event, visit www.kent.ac.uk/tonbridge Alternatively call us on 01732 352316 or email tonbridgeadmin@kent.ac.uk

Location
The information events relate to postgraduate studies at the University of Kent’s Tonbridge Centre, which is situated a few minutes’ walk from Tonbridge railway station and the town centre. There is plenty of public parking nearby. Maps showing these are available on our website, or from www.tmbc.gov.uk/services/transport-and-streets/parking
This programme of Short Courses at the University Centre Tonbridge allows you to spend time exploring a subject purely for interest, among like-minded people, without formal assessment.

Full course information is available on our website www.kent.ac.uk/tonbridge or by calling us on 01732 352316.

These courses are usually very popular and you are advised to apply as soon as possible. Places cannot be held without payment of the course fee.
