

The Workcenter of Jerzy Grotowski and Thomas Richards will be conducting a two-week International Work Encounter in Wroclaw, Poland from October 18 to October 31, 2007 within its Project Horizons.

This practical work encounter, which will focus on acting and singing skills, directing capacities, montage techniques and/or dramaturgic elaboration, will be led by Thomas Richards and the Workcenter team.

From the persons participating in the International Work Encounter, a small group of individuals will be selected to participate in a further week of practical work that will end on November 8th.

Participation in the International Work Encounter is free, but each participant must cover his own lodging, food, travel and all other expenses.

If you are interested in applying, please send us by email a C.V. (with date of birth and email) and a motivation letter by the 7th of June.

Our email is: workcenter@pontederateatro.it

Also send a video (in DVD or VHS support) with you at work, in acting and singing.

Video material should be sent to:

Project Horizons (2007 to 2009) by the Workcenter of Jerzy Grotowski and Thomas Richards is supported and hosted by the City of Wroclaw and the Instytut im. Jerzego Grotowskiego (formerly: The Center for Studies of Jerzy Grotowski's Work and for the Cultural and Theatrical Research) acts as fundamental partner and coordinating agent of this project.

During Project Horizons, the Workcenter will be three months a year in Wroclaw, deepening its internal research, holding its performing events, as well as conferences, practical work encounters and exchanges-in-work.
