

Module Evaluations

Why?

Module evaluations are an important opportunity for you (and BSIS) to reflect on your modules to date. Your feedback helps us understand what you like and what you don't like about various aspects of your modules. It also helps us make decisions about any changes we may need to make to them as a result, especially where a theme or pattern emerges from your responses and written comments.

You should be aware that BSIS highly values your feedback and your opinions matter to us. The more considered feedback we receive, the better we are able to reflect and respond to it. We would therefore appreciate you taking a few minutes to complete a survey for each module you are studying.

The results of these are viewed by both the Module convenor and the Director of Graduate Studies. Each module convenor compiles an Annual Module Report which is submitted to the Departmental Director of Learning and Teaching.

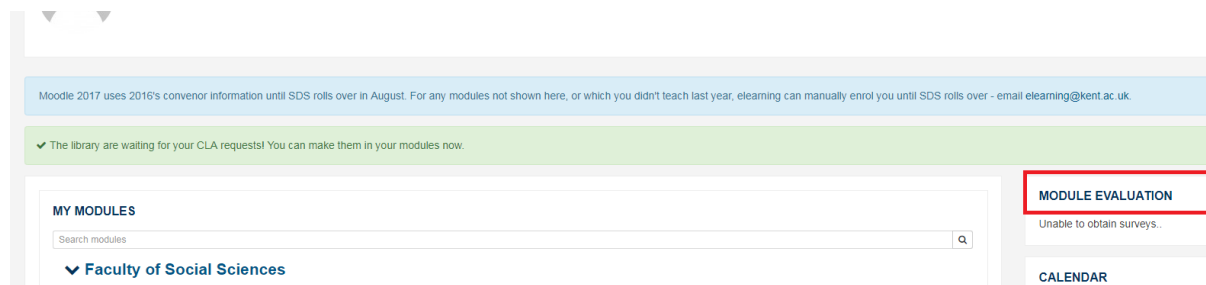

When?

The survey will run at the end of term 1. For modules that continue and/or start in the spring term you will have the opportunity to evaluate these in March next year.

How?

The module evaluations are carried out entirely online and your responses are completely anonymous to BSIS. Once the surveys are released you will receive an email to notify you that you have a survey to complete. To access the surveys you need to log in to your Moodle account and follow the links on the home page, they are usually located in a box to the side.

For example:

The screenshot shows a Moodle user interface. At the top, there is a light blue notification bar with the text: "Moodle 2017 uses 2016's convenor information until SDS rolls over in August. For any modules not shown here, or which you didn't teach last year, elearning can manually enrol you until SDS rolls over - email elearning@kent.ac.uk". Below this is a green bar with a checkmark and the text: "The library are waiting for your CLA requests! You can make them in your modules now." The main content area is titled "MY MODULES" and contains a search bar with the text "Search modules" and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar, there is a dropdown menu with "Faculty of Social Sciences" selected. To the right of the main content area, there is a sidebar with a red-bordered box containing the text "MODULE EVALUATION" and "Unable to obtain surveys...". Below this, there is a "CALENDAR" link.
