

English and Academic Skills for Exchange Students: Quiz

Choose the correct option for each question, then watch the screencast and check your answers.

1. Which department hosts the course in English and Academic Skills for Exchange Students?
 - a. The English Centre
 - b. The School of World Languages
 - c. The Centre for English and World Languages
 - d. The Centre for Exchange Students
2. What will you learn about on the course?
 - a. British academic culture
 - b. Being a student at the University of Kent
 - c. Life in Canterbury and the UK
 - d. All of the above
3. How long is the course?
 - a. 30 hours of study over five days
 - b. 25 hours of study over five days
 - c. 20 hours of study over five days
 - d. 15 hours of study over five days
4. What kinds of sessions are there on the course?
 - a. Seminars
 - b. Workshops
 - c. Lectures
 - d. All of the above
5. British academic culture is very 'student-centred'. This means:
 - a. Students are expected to participate actively in classes.
 - b. Students are not expected to contribute to sessions.
 - c. Teachers do all the talking.
 - d. Teachers' opinions matter the most.
6. Which of the following are examples of key academic skills you will learn about:
 - a. Taking part in discussions
 - b. Giving academic presentations
 - c. Essay-writing: paraphrase, summary, referencing
 - d. All of the above
7. Which of the following are available on our campus:
 - a. Student accommodation
 - b. Library
 - c. Restaurants and bars
 - d. All of the above
8. Which of the following are True:
 - a. Canterbury cathedral was built almost 1500 years ago.
 - b. London is just under an hour away.
 - c. You can easily travel by train to Europe.
 - d. All of the above.