

CURRICULUM VITAE
Julie MacInnes

1. QUALIFICATIONS

Academic

PhD Health and Social Care	Canterbury Christ Church University	2011
MSc. Interprofessional Health and Social Care	Canterbury Christ Church University	2004
Post-Graduate Certificate in Education (PGCE)	University of Greenwich	1999
BSc (Hons) Biological Sciences, 2:1	University of Reading	1989

Professional

Lecturer/Practice Educator	Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC)	1999
Cert. Cardiac Care (ENB 124).	English National Board (ENB)	1996
Dip (HE) Nursing, Adult	London Southbank University	1994

Membership of Professional Organisations

Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (FHEA)

Member of the British Association of Nursing in Cardiovascular Care (BANCC)

Member of the Royal College of Nursing

2. EXPERIENCE

Current Post

Research Fellow, Integrated Care - Centre for Health Service Studies (CHSS), University of Kent

August 2016 - present

Previous Posts

Lecturer Practitioner/Senior Lecturer/Principal Lecturer, School of Nursing, Faculty of Health and Wellbeing, Canterbury Christ Church University 1998 – August 2016

Principal Lecturer, 2014-2016

Responsibilities:

- Line-management for 16 academic staff including experienced and new members of staff, which includes operational tasks and developing potential and empowering individuals
- Member of the School Executive team, providing ongoing programme and business development for the School
- Member of the Faculty Board and Faculty Leadership Group, which provides strategic leadership for the work of the Faculty
- Work with Professional Leads and Programme Directors to ensure the curricula remains professionally relevant and responsive to changing demands
- Member of the staff development project group for new staff induction

Senior Lecturer, 2004-2014

Responsibilities, in addition to those above:

- Faculty Lead for the Masters Research Modules (stage 3) including leading the curriculum development
- Pathway lead for the MSc Advanced Practice (Acute Adult)
- Pathway lead for the BSc (Hons) Clinical Practice (Cardiac Care)
- Module leadership of 2 CPD modules
- Module leadership of the Masters Research Dissertation, accessed by 9 Masters Programmes
- Quality enhancement including preparation of annual quality monitoring reports, chairing programme management committees; liaising with external examiners
- Examination board chair for the 78 week Midwifery Programme
- PhD and Masters students' research supervision
- Member of the University Regulations and conventions sub-committee
- Member of the Faculty Research Ethics Committee (FREC)
- Member of the organising committee for the Annual Faculty Postgraduate Research Committee
- Member of the Faculty PhD selection committee
- Member of the Faculty and School Executive Committee
- Faculty representative on East Kent Hospitals Foundation Trust, Research and Development Committee
- Link Lecturer, supporting IPL students on clinical placements
- Personal tutor for groups of students on the IPL, pre-registration programme
- Faculty lead/co-ordinator for the Clinical Academic Training Programme, (Funded by HEKSS) (2013-14)
- RKE Strategic Theme lead, involving supporting staff to develop RKE bids, including peer review (2013-14)
- Programme Director for the BSc. (Hons) Acute Adult Nursing (2003-5)
- Deputy Chair of the CPD examination board (2003-5)

Lecturer/Practitioner, 1998-2004

Responsibilities:

- Practice development within clinical areas
- Clinical and academic practice
- Liaison between clinical areas and CCCU

Staff Nurse, Coronary Care Unit, Havering Hospitals NHS Trust, 1994 - 1998

Responsibilities:

- All aspects of clinical practice
- Deputising for the ward manager

3. Research and Knowledge Exchange (RKE), Scholarship

Research and knowledge exchange:

- Submitted to REF (2014)
- An evaluation of a training programme of communication in end of life care. A collaborative project with Kent Community Health NHS Foundation Trust (2015-16).
- The implementation and evaluation of a programme of pulmonary rehabilitation in a prison setting. A collaborative project with HMP Maidstone and Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust, featured in the University RKE annual report (2013-14).
- Optimising self-care in heart failure. A collaborative project with Kent Community Health NHS Trust (2012-13)

Scholarship:

- RCN Research Society, Scientific Committee Member
- Editorial Board member for the British Journal of Cardiac Nursing
- Reviewer for the journals: British Journal of Cardiac Nursing, Nursing in Critical Care; Journal of Health Psychology; Journal of Psychosomatic medicine; Journal of Mixed Methods Research
- Book reviewer: Sage Publications

Recent Publications:

MacInnes J and Merrit S (2016) Acute Heart Failure, in Ward Based Critical Care Nursing (Ed: Price A and Smith S) M&K publishing.

MacInnes J (2015) Heart failure: what's in a name? British Journal of Cardiac Nursing. (Guest editorial)

Walton, A and MacInnes, J (2015) Self-care and improved outcomes: intervention by heart failure nurse specialists. British Journal of Cardiac Nursing.

MacInnes, J. (2014) ECG interpretation – are we getting it right? British Journal of Cardiac Nursing. (Guest editorial).

MacInnes, J. (2013) Illness perceptions and treatment beliefs in heart failure. Journal of Clinical Nursing.

MacInnes, J. (2013) Relationships between illness representations, treatment beliefs and the performance of self-care in heart failure: a cross-sectional survey. European Journal of Cardiovascular Nursing.

Whitlock, A. and MacInnes, J. (2010) Acute heart failure: Assessment and Management. British Journal of Cardiac Nursing.

MacInnes, J. (2010) Critiquing mixed methods research. British Journal of Cardiac Nursing.

Rudell, K. and MacInnes, J. (2009) Methodological issues and inferences about the structure of illness perceptions. Psychology and Health.

MacInnes, J. (2008) Factors affecting self-care in heart failure – a literature review. British Journal of Cardiac Nursing.

MacInnes, J. (2007) Research round-up. British Journal of Cardiac Nursing.

MacInnes, J. (2006) The illness perceptions of women following symptoms of acute myocardial infarction: a self-regulatory approach. European Journal of Cardiovascular Nursing.

Conference presentations/posters:

MacInnes, J. (2011) Illness representations, treatment beliefs and the relationship to self-care in heart failure. RCN International Research Society Conference. Harrogate, UK.

Rudell, K. and MacInnes, J. (2009) Methodological issues and inferences about the structure of illness perceptions – New findings from 3 qualitative research studies in illness perceptions. European Society of Health Psychology, Annual Conference. Pisa, Italy.

MacInnes, J. (2009) Illness perceptions, treatment beliefs and the relationship to self-care in heart failure – A self-regulatory approach (Poster presentation). European Society of Cardiovascular Nursing, 9th Annual Spring Meeting. Dublin, Ireland.

MacInnes, J. (2005) The illness perceptions of women following acute myocardial infarction. European Association of Women’s Health Research (EAWHR). Tallinn, Estonia.

Awards and other indicators of peer esteem:

External Examiner Positions:

Chief examiner, BSc (Hons) Clinical Practice	University of Brighton	2011 – 2015:
Examiner, BSc (Hons) Critical Care	Bournemouth University	2000-2005

Awards:

Nursing Times Winner - Respiratory care category. 2013

The implementation and evaluation of a programme of pulmonary rehabilitation in a prison setting, with HMP Maidstone and Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust.

Akinsanya Award for Innovation in Doctoral studies in Nursing (Runner-up) 2012

For PhD thesis entitled “illness perceptions, treatment beliefs and relationship to self-care behaviour in heart failure”

Member of the judging panel for the British Cardiac Nursing awards 2008

Recent and ongoing professional development:

Culture, Leadership and Management Framework, staff development events 2014 – 2016

Systematic Review Course, Oxford University 2013