

Programme for EFPC International Symposium

Integrating primary and Community Care: an international perspective

2nd March 2018

Canterbury Cathedral Lodge
Canterbury Cathedral,
The Precincts,
Canterbury, Kent
CT1 2EH
United Kingdom

<https://www.canterburycathedrallodge.org/contact/>

9:00 Registration, coffee, networking

10:00 Welcome and introduction
Professor Sally Kendall, Chair of EFPC

10:15 Panel 1

Professor Pavlos Theodorakis
WHO Primary Care Centre, Almaty
Universal Health Coverage and Person-centeredness: are they compatible with strong primary care?

Professor Jenny Billings
Professor of Integrated Care, University of Kent
Integrating primary and community care in England: challenges and debates

Professor Henk Parmentier
Vice President for Europe World Federation for Mental Health
Universal Health and Mental Health Coverage for All, the role of Primary Care in Europe

11:15 Questions to panel

11:30 Round table discussion with coffee

12:15 Feedback to panel and plenary discussion

12:45 Lunch

13:45 Panel 2

Professor Jan de Maeseneer
Emeritus Professor of Family Medicine
University of Ghent
Family Medicine and Primary Care at the Crossroads of Societal Change

Professor Kate O'Donnell
President, Society of Academic Primary Care
University of Glasgow
Primary Care and vulnerable populations: How can we improve the health of refugees in Europe?

Professor Stephen Peckham
Director, Centre for Health Services Studies, University of Kent
New Models of Care: emerging evidence of change for primary care

14:45 Questions to panel

15:00 Round table discussions with tea

15:45 Feedback to panel and plenary discussions

16: 15 Break

16: 30 Summary and close of the day – Sally Kendall