- seminar presentation
- essay planning and structure
- listening and note taking
- autonomous work

Course Programme

Participants will receive 25 hours intensive tuition from Monday 15 to Friday 19 September 2008. Sessions will encourage participants to practise and improve their language skills through discussions, written work, aural exercises, grammar reviews, group presentations and individual study. Sessions will be in both seminar and lecture format and will give participants a thorough preparation for their studies at Kent. A study guide will be sent to all participants in August.

A Campus tour and Library induction are offered as part of the course, providing an excellent opportunity to discover the campus and its facilities before the return of the main student body. During the Library induction, students will be able to set up their University computing accounts. A social programme (details to be confirmed) is also incorporated giving participants a chance to get to know each other and visit Canterbury.

Arrival

Participants should arrive on Sunday 14 September.

Accommodation

Rooms are allocated in college with dinner on Sunday and all breakfasts provided in the college dining hall. Other meals can be purchased in the various catering outlets or the shop on campus or in Canterbury. On Saturday 20 September, participants will transfer to their permanent accommodation, which has been allocated to them for the remainder of their stay.

Course fee

The course fee is £302.80, which includes tuition, accommodation, dinner on Sunday and all breakfasts. Please do not send payment with your form; you will be sent an invoice as soon as your place is confirmed. We regret that we have to charge a fee of £30 for cancellation after 11 August 2008.
