**The Division of Arts and Humanities is undertaking a review of its courses and associated modules. This means there is a risk that some modules will not be available after OMR. Any changes will be dealt in line with Kent's established process as required by the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA). You should select your modules based on the list available. If there are any changes to your selection, you will be contacted as soon as possible with suggested alternatives. The review is planned to be completed by July 2023 at the latest.*

The information contained herein is correct at the time of publication. Please note, however, that if a module recruits fewer than 8 students it is possible that it will not run. In this event, you will be contacted and asked to select an alternative module.

QUALIFICATION AS A SOLICITOR OR BARRISTER IN ENGLAND AND WALES

At the time of publication, as of 2022, the Solicitor's Regulation Authority no longer accredits the undergraduate law degrees offered by Kent Law School (nor elsewhere) as Qualifying Law Degrees (QLDs). Students seeking to qualify as a solicitor must attain a degree, and undertake the Solicitors Qualifying Exam (SQE).

Note: students must have started their course by the end of the 2021 calendar year for the degree to be recognised as a QLD.

The Bar Standards Board have also ceased their recognition of any undergraduate law degree (both at Kent, and elsewhere) as a QLD. HOWEVER, in order to satisfy the academic component of professional training for intending barristers, students must study the Foundations of Legal Knowledge (the modules that all KLS undergraduate law degrees continue to offer); and they must adhere to the requirements specified below.

More detailed information about qualification as a solicitor or barrister, QLDs, and the changes to professional qualification, can be found on the Law Student Guide.

To complete the academic component of professional training (for barristers), students must take and pass (i.e. attain a mark of at least 40%) in the modules listed below, hereafter referred to as the 'exemption modules', over the course of their degree:

LAWS3150 Introduction to Contract and Tort
LAWS3160 / LAWS5316 Introduction to Property Law
LAWS3270 Introduction to the English Legal System
LAWS5080 Criminal Law OR LAWS6010 Criminal Law
LAWS5880 Public Law 1
LAWS5920 Public Law 2
LAWS5930 European Union Law
LAWS5980 Equity and Trusts
LAWS5990 Land Law
LAWS6500 The Law of Contract
LAWS6510 The Law of Tort

These modules serve as the 'Foundations of Legal Knowledge' for the purposes of qualification as a barrister. The Law School will assume that all students want to complete these modules, therefore all students will be automatically registered for them.

To obtain a Law Degree, in addition to the exemption modules, students must also study a further 60 Credits of Law.<sup>1</sup>

Students who successfully complete the Foundations of Legal Knowledge, and obtain an overall degree classification of at least 2.2, will be eligible to proceed to the Vocational Component of training for barristers, which currently takes the form of the Bar Professional Training Course ('BPTC').

i) Implication of failure in exemption modules

Students must PASS ALL the exemption modules listed above. There may be consequences for failing to do so on your qualification.

Although University rules governing compensation/condonation may permit a student to progress to the next stage of their degree, or even pass their degree as a whole, the exemption module will still have been failed. As a result, the student will not have passed the Foundations of Legal Knowledge.

However, the Bar Standards Board ('BSB') allows the Board of Examiners the discretion to compensate a single failure of an exemption module, but only in exceptional circumstances and if specific criteria are met. More information about the criteria can be found on the Law Student Guide, but students should contact the Student Support Office for guidance on the process of submitting evidence of extenuating circumstances to the Board of Examiners.

ii) Number of attempts

The Bar Standards Board allows a maximum of three attempts at each exemption module (one initial attempt followed by a further two attempts). Attempts treated “as for the first time” do not count for this purpose.

If a student is compensated before being given three attempts to allow them to progress:

- The student can sit the module for exemption purposes alongside their course of study or, if they have graduated, as an external candidate at the first available opportunity. For example, for a student who graduates with a compensated mark in an exemption module in July of any given year, the first available opportunity to sit for exemption purposes will be in August of that year.

iii) Time limits

All students, regardless of whether they are full or part time, have six years to complete their law degree for the purposes of qualifying as a barrister.

Please note: Discretion is afforded to the Board of Examiners to extend this time limit, but only in exceptional circumstances. Students are advised to contact the Student Support Office for further guidance.

Joint Honours Law Students

During the induction weeks, there are introductory events which all Joint Honours students should try to attend. Compulsory module (Introduction to the English Legal System), which is one of the Foundations of Legal Knowledge, will have some sessions taught during Kent Vision week nine. The lectures will be recorded so that students who are unable to attend due to a clash will be able to access these online.

Law Courses

You must pass Stage 1 overall and take all Compulsory modules on your course, in order to proceed to Stage 2. Any modules marked with an asterisk (*) cannot be compensated, condoned or trailed. Modules marked with a v cannot be trailed, but can be compensated or condoned. Modules marked with a # cannot be compensated or condoned, but can be trailed at the discretion of the Board of Examiners.

Single Honours

STAGE 1 – 120 credits – 60 in each term

1. An average of 60% (or a merit on preponderance) in Stage 1 is a pre-requisite to entry on the year abroad. Students will be transferred, usually to the LLB Law, if this is not attained. The Director of the course will, however, consider applications for entry to the year abroad from students who do not achieve the required standard if:

- a) There is documented evidence of exceptional circumstances that have interfered with the student's academic performance in Stage 1, and
- b) The Director of the course is satisfied that, where appropriate to the circumstances, appropriate support is available whilst abroad to mitigate the effect of those circumstances, or
- c) In order to contribute to widening participation in Higher Education, the student meets one or more of the contextual indicators required for entry to the Certificate route of the LLB Law course.

2. A pass in LAWS5390 Droit Français at stage 2 is also a prerequisite for entry to Stage A of the degree. If a pass is not attained in LAWS5390, then students are usually transferred to the LLB Law.

You must take the following compulsory Law modules (90 credits):

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL POLICY, SOCIOLOGY AND SOCIAL RESEARCH

School Website: www.kent.ac.uk/sspsr/

TIZARD CENTRE

Centre Website: www.kent.ac.uk/tizard

SSPSSR DEGREES WITH A YEAR ABROAD

The School of Social Policy, Sociology and Social Research offers their undergraduate students the chance to add an optional year abroad to their course of study. Please see the Study Abroad pages at <https://www.kent.ac.uk/go-abroad/study-abroad/course-list> for available courses and destinations.

Please note: Students must achieve an average of 60% or above in the first year of study to be eligible for the Year Abroad and two of your tutors will need to support your application. You will also need to attend a series of talks and workshops. In addition, students must show language proficiency for those courses where the language of instruction is not English.

SSPSSR students on an undergraduate course 'with a Year Abroad' will spend one academic year studying in a University with whom Kent has agreed such exchanges with. The institutions usually change over time, but will generally include a range of Universities across Europe and in selected countries across the world. At present, these include:

- University of Tampere, Finland
- Freie Universität Berlin, Germany
- Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, Netherlands
- University of Hong Kong, China
- Nanyang Technological University, China
- Maynooth University, Ireland
- New Mexico State University, USA
- Towson University, USA
- Mount Allison University, Canada
- Concordia University, Canada
- Chinese University of Hong Kong, China – SOCIOLOGY ONLY
- Ghent University, Belgium – CRIMINOLOGY ONLY
- San Diego State University, USA – CRIMINOLOGY ONLY
- University of Wisconsin - La Crosse, USA – CRIMINOLOGY ONLY

Students will undertake study, as directed by course directors and module convenors, in the institutions where they are enrolled in and will be assessed accordingly. Students will also retain contact with staff at Kent whilst abroad. Completion of a 'year abroad' course means students gain 120 credits through the 'year abroad' module and will therefore graduate 'with a year abroad' in their degree title.
