Note: It is ultimately your responsibility to ensure that you are registered for the correct modules for your course.

The Year in Journalism is a free-standing, self-contained year, offered to students from other Schools in the University and can be taken after stage 2 or 3 (that is, between your second and final year, or after your final year). More information can be found at Year in Journalism - Centre for Journalism - University of Kent.

You must study 120 credits. This course can be taken as a bolt on for your current degree.

Successful completion of the Year in Journalism and your registered degree will allow you to graduate with your current degree title augmented with the words 'with a Year in Journalism'

YEAR IN JOURNALISM – STAGE Y
