

HISTORY

Note: It is ultimately your responsibility to ensure that you are registered for the correct modules for your programme.

This programme is available as either a Single Honours degree or as a Joint Honours degree, with a subject in Humanities or Social Sciences. Attention is also drawn to the programmes in War Studies, History and Archaeological Studies and History of Science, Technology and Medicine.

Students must study 120 credits at both Stages 2 and 3 giving a total of 240 credits over the two stages. At least 90 credits must be at Level H to be eligible for an Honours degree. Stage 2 students should normally take modules at Level I; Stage 3 at Level H. Students are expected to study 60 credits in each of the Autumn and Spring term.

SINGLE HONOURS Students take between 180 and 240 credits of History modules over Stages 2 & 3. These modules must be taken from at least two geographical areas and be a mix from Group A and B. Legend = AA – Africa & Asia, AM – America, EU – Continental Europe, BI – British Isles. Up to 60 credits may be taken from Wild modules.

STAGE 2 Students are required to take either: 120 credits from Group A and/or B OR 90 credits from Group A and B, plus 30 credits from HI566 Stage 2 Dissertation.

STAGE 3 Students are required to take either: 60 Credits from Group C (choose both codes for the Special Subject), plus 60 credits from Group A and/or B. OR 90 credits from Group A and B plus 30 credits from HI605 IDS.

JOINT HONOURS Students take between 90 and 150 credits of History modules over Stages 2 & 3. Stage 2 students are permitted to take HI566 Stage 2 Dissertation. You are not required to follow any geographical and chronological requirements. In Stage 3, students taking 120 credits or more in History may take a Group C History Special Subject or HI605. Up to 30 credits can be taken from Wild modules.

HISTORY AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL STUDIES

This Single Honours degree programme combines the study of archaeology with medieval or post-medieval as well as ancient history. In Stages 2 and 3, the modules allow students to further their study of how history and archaeology converge in the study of the past. Museum and site visits are incorporated as appropriate. The archaeology modules include an option studying Archaeological Fieldwork methods and techniques. Opportunities to participate in practical excavation and fieldwork linked to staff projects in Britain and abroad are frequent.

Students must study 120 credits at both Stages 2 and 3 giving a total of 240 credits over the two stages. At least 90 credits must be at Level H to be eligible for an Honours degree. Stage 2 students should normally take modules at Level I. Students will study 60 credits in the Autumn term and 60 credits in the Spring term.

Over Stages 2 & 3 90 credits must be taken from History Group A and/or Group B plus 90 credits must be chosen from Tables A, B or C in the Classical and Archaeological Studies section.

Stage 3 students are required to take either a History Special Subject from Group C or HI605. These modules may not be compensated or condoned. With the permission of the Director of Studies, an equivalent module may be chosen from the Classical and Archaeological list.
