PROGRAMMES OFFERED BY THE KENT LAW SCHOOL

Head of School: Professor Didi Herman

School Web Site: <http://www.kent.ac.uk/law/>

All programmes, unless specified in the rubric for that programme, require that you take modules amounting to 120 LEVEL C Credits in total, 60 Credits in the Autumn term, and 60 Credits in the Spring term. FULL DETAILS OF ALL MODULES LISTED ARE AVAILABLE IN THE MODULE CATALOGUE: <http://www.kent.ac.uk/studying/modulecatalogue/>.

QUALIFICATION AS SOLICITOR OR BARRISTER IN ENGLAND AND WALES

SOLICITORS and BARRISTERS

Students must take and pass the modules listed below (hereafter referred to as the exemption modules) in order to obtain exemption from the Common Professional Examination and be eligible to proceed to the Legal Practice Course (Solicitors) or the Bar Professional Training Course, BPTC, (Barristers). In addition, those wishing to proceed to the BPTC must obtain an overall 2:2.

LW315 Introduction to Obligations

LW316 Foundations of Property

LW508 Criminal Law OR LW601 Advanced Criminal Law

LW588 Public Law 1

LW592 Public Law 2

LW593 European Union Law

LW597 The Law of Obligations

LW598 Equity and Trusts

LW599 Land Law

Plus a further 60 Credits of Law are required to obtain the 240 Credits of Law needed for a Qualifying Law Degree.

Implication of failure in exemption modules

It is vital that you PASS ALL your exemption modules: these are listed above. There are serious consequences for not achieving 40% in such a module. While the University compensation rules may permit you to progress to the next Stage, or even to pass your degree as a whole, you will still have failed an exemption module. This means that you will NOT have obtained a Qualifying Law Degree. In turn, this means that your name will not appear on the group certificate provided by the Law School to the Joint Academic Standards Board.

Number of attempts

The Professional Bodies will allow a maximum of three attempts at the exemption modules which include any attempts that are "as for the first time". If you have had three attempts and are then compensated, you will need to consult the relevant professional bodies for advice.

If you have been compensated before having three attempts and are still within your programme of study at the University, you may sit the module for exemption purposes only. However, this will not count towards your final degree classification.

If you have been compensated before having three attempts and then graduate, you may take up the offer of sitting as an external candidate at the first available opportunity at Kent. For example, if you graduate with a compensated mark in an exemption module in July 2014, the first available opportunity to sit for exemption purposes will be in August 2014.

Time limits for qualifying Law degrees

FULL-TIME STUDENTS	PART-TIME STUDENTS
The maximum time limit for completion of a QLD is 6 years.	Began Stage 1 before September 2012 – maximum of eight years to complete a QLD.
	Began Stage 1 from September 2012 onwards – maximum of six years to complete a QLD. This means that you will not be able to intermit or repeat a year and still receive a QLD.

JOINT HONOURS LAW STUDENTS

Students undertaking a Joint Honours Law degree who take and pass the above modules (and in the case of aspiring Barristers obtain a 2:2 (Hons) degree overall) will be able to obtain a Qualifying Law Degree which will exempt them from the Common Professional Examination and enable them to proceed to the Legal Practice Course or the Bar Professional Training Course.

Students who have not taken all exemption modules may nonetheless be able to obtain professional qualification in due course by fulfilling the requirements of the legal profession through the Common Professional Examination (CPE) or Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL). This will require further study at another institution, as Kent Law School does not offer this programme. Such students should consult the Director of Studies, Dr Nicola Barker.
