

Turnitin: PeerMark

Introduction to PeerMark

PeerMark is a peer review tool. You can set up a PeerMark option on a Turnitin assignment. This will enable students to review submissions made by their peers. You can choose whether the reviews are anonymous, whether students can select which submission to review or whether reviews are randomly assigned, and if students self-assess their own work.

Accessing PeerMark reviews

1. In the submission inbox, click on the small paper icon to the right of the green cog (Fig. 1).

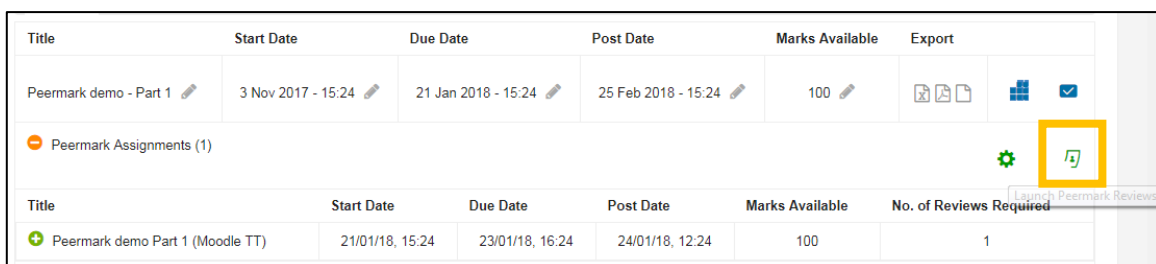

Fig. 1

The Reviews tab (Fig. 2) shows the list of students and whether or not they have submitted a review (in the Submitted column (1)) and how many reviews they have received (in the Received column (2)).

A lecturer can also write a review by clicking on the blue pencil icon (3). If you have left a review, the icon is green (4).

2. Click on a number in a grey circle (5) to go to either the submitted or received list.
3. On the following screen (Fig. 3), click on the blue tick icon.

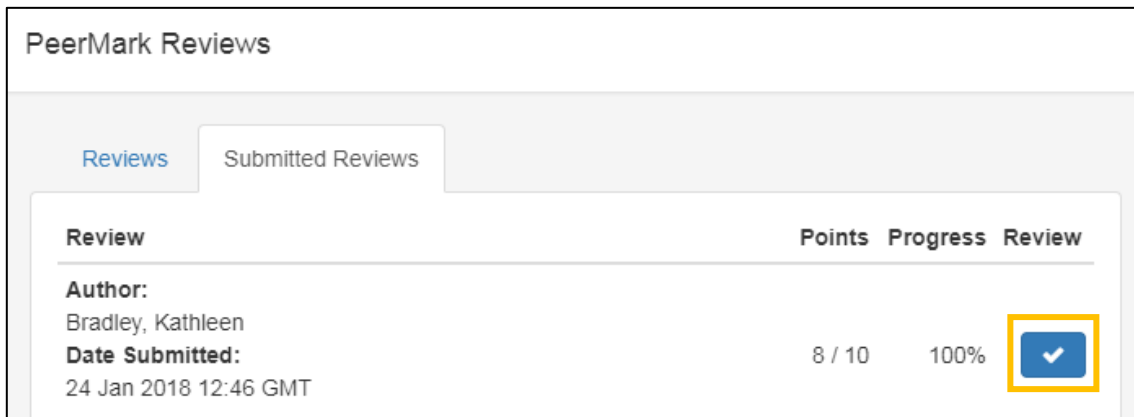

Fig. 3

The review viewer (Fig. 4) enables you to view the comments made by the student reviewer (1) and their answers to the set review questions (2).

Grading reviews

Once the due date has arrived, markers are able to grade reviews in the review viewer if the set-up option to award full points for a review is No.

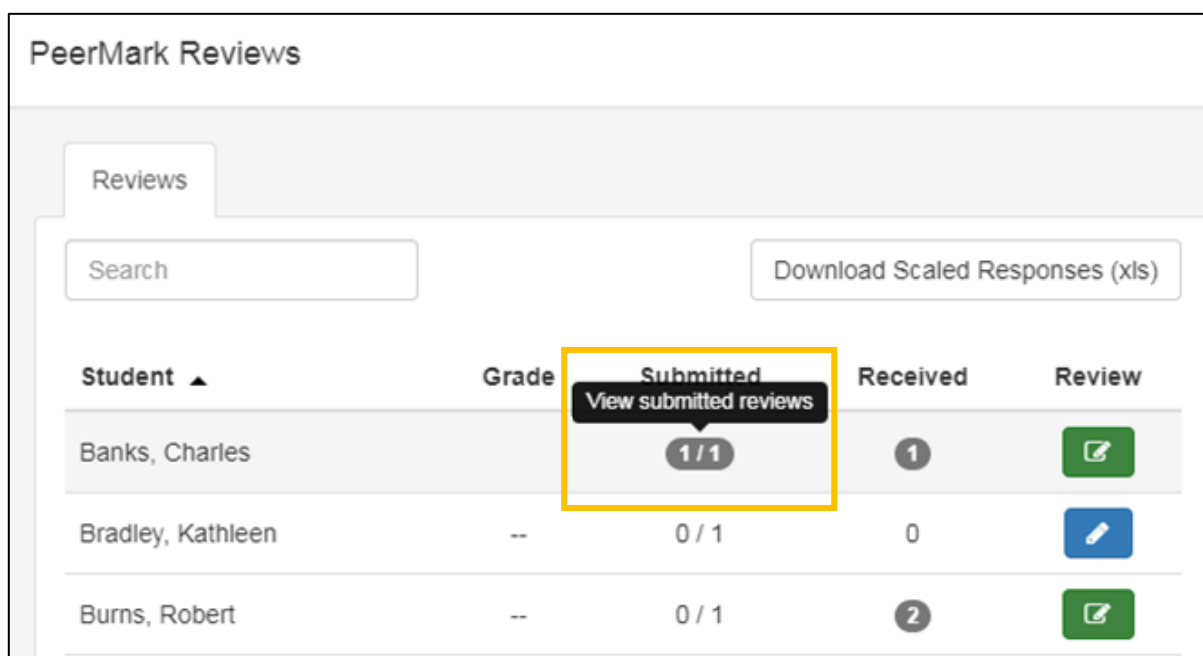

1. In the submission inbox, click on the small paper icon to the right of the green cog (Fig. 5)

Viewing grades and downloading scale responses

1. You can view the students' grades given by clicking on the green paper icon next to the green cog (Fig. 8)

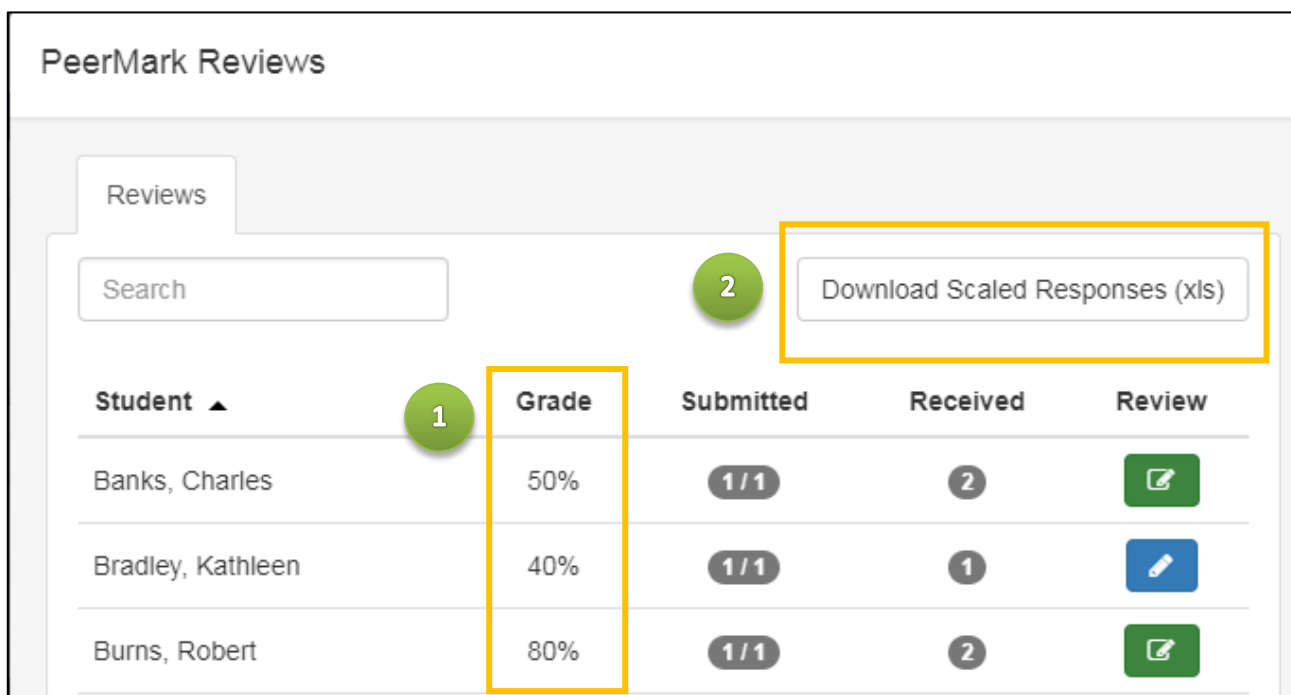

Fig. 8

2. The grades (1) are listed on the following screen (Fig. 9).

There is also the option to download the scale responses for each review and the scale response averages for a submission/reviewer.grades as an Excel spreadsheet by clicking on Download Scaled Responses (xls) (2).

The screenshot shows the 'PeerMark Reviews' page. It features a search bar, a 'Download Scaled Responses (xls)' button (highlighted with a yellow box and labeled '2'), and a table of student reviews. The table has columns for Student, Grade, Submitted, Received, and Review. The 'Grade' column is highlighted with a yellow box and labeled '1'.

Student ▲	Grade	Submitted	Received	Review
Banks, Charles	50%	1/1	2
Bradley, Kathleen	40%	1/1	1
Burns, Robert	80%	1/1	2
