Welcome to your December update for the Canterbury campus. Here you will find the latest confirmed EP rewards, ways to earn more points, competitions and much more!

Every month we will highlight the latest top company to confirm they will be offering exclusive EP rewards to our students this summer!

This month it is TMLEP

TMLEP is a specialist clinical practice, providing sector leading services to some of the UK’s leading clinical negligence Defence and Claimant law firms.

TMLEP are providing three 10-week paid internships to students engaging with the EP Scheme. Here, students will gain an insight into the medico-legal sector and gain the chance to work with some of the largest law firms in the UK.

You may not know, but in the last 3-years, TMLEP have offered full-time roles to a number of the EP interns!
Spotlight on a Sponsor

Once per month we will feature one EP sponsor who is offering some amazing opportunities!

Yoyo Design is a multi-award winning digital agency which delivers digital strategy, marketing, branding, web design and web development solutions.

Yoyo are renowned for their innovative approach and fun attitude towards work!

Exclusively for EP students, Yoyo are offering:

- Paid internship in project management
- Work experience in graphic design
- Work experience in web design

You won't be undertaking mundane tasks for these rewards - you will get the chance to assist with live projects, which may include M&S, Universal Music Group, Penguin Random House and Lifeboats, to name a few!

For more information on Yoyo Design, check out their EP profile here.
Further Sponsorship

Here are some other rewards recently confirmed for EP students! Click on the logos to find out more!

- Internship reviewing impact of strategy on communities and businesses
- Marketing internship and work experience in coding and user experience
- Work shadowing in management
- Mini pupillage and more!
- HQ tour and workshops in IT and consultancy
- Business engagement in Higher Education work experience
- Work experience in sports management
- Work experience in archives, as well as behind the scenes tour and 1-1 appointments with Head Curator
- Work experience as a TV runner or providing office support

---

Internship reviewing impact of strategy on communities and businesses

Marketing internship and work experience in coding and user experience

Work shadowing in management

Mini pupillage and more!

HQ tour and workshops in IT and consultancy

Business engagement in Higher Education work experience

Work experience in sports management

Work experience in archives, as well as behind the scenes tour and 1-1 appointments with Head Curator

Work experience as a TV runner or providing office support
Further Sponsorship

- Patent Attorney workshop
- Work experience and shadowing in sales and marketing
- Wildlife conservation work experience
- Stats and research internship
- Work shadowing in marketing and business development
- Highest points prize and tour of site
- Chemistry and microbiology internships and work shadowing
- Workshop on confidence and highest points prize

All these opportunities are only available to students with sufficient points on their profiles! You can cash in points in March 2019 to apply!
As the Festive Break is upon us, don't forget if you work part-time, volunteer or attend events during this period, you can claim Employability Points!

Looking for something to do during the Festive Break?

You can complete the Careers Award (DP2650) on Moodle and earn 60 points!

This module covers CV writing, interview skills, application forms and much more!

For more info, see here.
Demelza are looking for student volunteers!

If you would like to dedicate some time to assist with fundraising for this charity, check out more info here.

LinkedIn Local is coming to the University of Kent!

This special event will include workshops on marketing and how to build your personal brand. There will also be the chance to network with local businesses and employers from different sectors!

29th January 2019 (16:00-18:00)
Woody's Kent
20 points for going!

Register here
Develop your entrepreneurial skills and earn points!

The Hub for Innovation and Enterprise can offer you business advice sessions, an online skills module and introductory workshops to starting a business!

For more info, click here.

---

Welcome Back Fairs!

Are you still interested in joining a society but missed out at the start of term? Or perhaps you would like to try a new hobby or sport? If so, make sure you pop by the Welcome Back Fairs on 16th and 17th January (11:00-16:00, Eliot Hall)

You can also claim 5 points!

---

Book your place on Kent's FREE Study Plus workshops

Registration for spring term Study Plus courses will be open soon! There is a wide variety of courses which allow you to explore your creative side as well as learning new skills to help you during your studies and when you graduate. It is also a great way of earning Employability Points!

Sign up to the Study Plus mailing list to be the first to hear about new courses.
FREE English Language and Academic Skills (ELAS) Support

If English is your second language, you can sign-up to FREE English and academic skills workshops and earn Employability Points! Registration for spring term is open now so don’t miss out! For more information, visit the ELAS webpages.

Improve your English with our Cambridge and IELTS Exam Preparation Courses

Are you interested in obtaining an English qualification that has a world-wide reputation and helps you to develop your skills in English for study, work or general purposes? If so, then you might be interested in taking either the Cambridge Exam Preparation course (CAE/CPE) or the IELTS Preparation course. Registration is open now for the spring term courses. For more information, click here

FREE Individual Writing and Speaking Tutorials

If English is your second language and you would like support with either your academic writing or speaking for seminars and presentation, book your appointment with CEWL for an individual writing or speaking tutorial. The Centre for English and World Languages are offering FREE individual speaking and writing tutorials open to all international students. Each session lasts up to 45 minutes during which you will meet with an academic member of staff who will provide you with advice and feedback on either your speaking or a piece of academic writing.

To book your free appointment, please email cewl@kent.ac.uk.

For more information, please visit our website.
Kent Law School are looking for actors to play the parts of witnesses, defendants and court staff in our upcoming mock trials.

We are looking for actors (both male and female) who have excellent improvisation skills with prior acting experience.

This is a unique opportunity and one that will look good on CVs when applying for future acting jobs that require role play experience. The trials will be recorded and so could be used for actors’ showreels if so required.

Although unpaid, students will be able to obtain employability points.

Time Commitment: The successful candidates will need to be available on 13th, 15th and 22nd March 5-8pm. They will also need to be available for 2 rehearsal workshops at the start of March (times and dates to be arranged). The trials and rehearsals will take place at the Canterbury Campus.

Applications: In the first instance please send your CV (or statement outlining your acting experience) and a head and shoulder photograph to Darren Weir, by email: d.weir@kent.ac.uk. Auditions will be held in January at the start of the Spring Term. Deadline for Applications: Tuesday 15th January 2019 5pm.
Well done to Tobi Kolawole-Olutade who won the Most Points Logged in November competition!

Don’t forget we are running the competition - Most Points Logged in December and the winning student will win £10 Amazon voucher!

Are you looking for a paid role where you can have a positive impact on the student experience at Kent?

If so, the EP are currently looking to appoint a student as their Canterbury Ambassador for Term 2!

The successful applicant will work with student groups, deliver lecture shout-outs and attend events.

The student will also be paid £525 for working 5 hours per week.

To apply, you can find out more here.
How are you spending your co-curricular time? Is it volunteering? For a student group, sports club, or any kind of external volunteering?

Then why not gain extra recognition for your volunteer work. Turn your activity into formal proof that you have what employers want. Print a ‘Skills Record’ to show them. Work through Bronze, Silver, Gold and GoldPlus Awards. Have those KSCV Awards on your Graduation Transcript (HEAR). Gain EP points for every KSCV Award you achieve. Reflect on your work. Practice interview skills. The Toolkit is free and simple to use on the Kent Union website, no sign up needed!

Backlog all volunteering you have done since 11th May 2018, and prove how employable you are with a KSCV Award! You could even win ‘Volunteer of the Month’ if you impress others with your hard work or achievements. If you have any further questions then please feel free to email Sam at volunteering@kent.ac.uk.

Also, this month, anyone with over 10 hours logged can enter our Volunteer Winter Raffle – where we have some great prizes donated by local Canterbury and Medway businesses. The draw is on the 10th December, so don’t miss out on the chance at some fantastic prizes. To check out the full prize list head to kentunion.co.uk/prizes, and to find out more and enter, press the banner at kentunion.co.uk/rewards.