You only have 4-weeks left to log your points!

Remember, you need 200 points to apply for a summer internship (paid, 4-12 weeks), 150 points for work experience (unpaid, 2-weeks), 100 points for work shadowing (unpaid, 2-days) and 75 points for training and experience days.

The process to get rewarded is:

- You will receive the Rewards Pack on 4th March, which will allow you to browse all available EP rewards.
- You then need to ensure you have enough points by 18th March (17:00).
- If you have sufficient points, we will send you an application form on 19th March and you will have 1 1/2 weeks to complete this.
- The EP team will consider all applications in April and if shortlisted, you may need to attend an interview in May.
- Rewards commence from June onward.

If you need any help or guidance, the EP team will be running 1-1 sessions throughout the period. To book, email employabilitypoints@kent.ac.uk
Every month we will highlight the latest top company to confirm they will be offering exclusive EP rewards to our students this summer!

This month it is Southeastern.

Southeastern runs train services into London from Kent and East Sussex, operating 2,000 trains per day with around 170 million passengers using the service every year.

Exclusively through the EP Scheme, there will be 7 internships available! These include:

- Project reviewing passenger behaviour at St Pancras with intention of reducing accidents.
- Internships assessing pressures placed on Station Managers and reviewing proposals to enhance productivity.
- Internships focusing on business administration.
- Project management internship focusing upon team performance.
- Internships focusing on Procurement and Contracts.

Southeastern are also presenting £150, £100 and £50 Amazon vouchers to the EP students who log the most hours on Kent Union's ToolKit! You can see last year's winner below:
Nucleus Arts is the Award Winning flagship arts organisation founded by the Halpern Charitable Foundation. Nucleus Arts has become the cultural and creative heart of Kent & Medway over the past 12 years and focuses on affordability, accessibility and excellence in the Arts.

Nucleus Arts are offering a company experience day to EP students, including a tour, workshop and the chance to meet resident artists! There will also be work shadowing opportunities in management, outreach and gallery operations.

New for 2019: Nucleus Arts are offering a research internship, where one student will investigate the relationship between culture and mental health!

This will lead to the student preparing a report and co-authoring an article, which will showcase the benefits of the arts in the community.
Further Sponsorship

Here are some other rewards recently confirmed for EP students! Click on the logos to find out more!

- Pharmacy internship
- Marketing and content writing internship
- Event planning work experience
- Data analysis work experience
- Disability research work experience
- Visitor operations work experience
- Lab work experience and company experience day
- Technical internship focused on programming, AI and more
- Employability sessions focused on law
Further Sponsorship

ETLA

Project placement focused on Natural Capital Accounting

Kent Enterprise Trust

Work experience focused on events, videography, business strategy, environmental and funding

CONVERT ENERGY

Work experience researching CRM systems

Landmark London

Videography internship

MidKent College

Work experience in business development, data protection and finance. Also chance to shadow a senior director

All these opportunities are only available to students with sufficient points on their profiles! You can cash in points in March 2019 to apply!
Are you in a Medway Society?

If so, your society can enter the Medway Apprentice Challenge - a night of Apprentice-inspired challenges, hosted at the Deep End!

The winning society will get £250 for their group and all participants can earn 15 points.

Want to get involved but not in a society, you can join a group now!
Earn 20 points by attending the #DigitalReboot Disruptive Conference on 27th February (17:00-21:00) (Canterbury campus)

This event will cover the latest digital trends, what businesses will survive the future, jobs of the future and much more!

Register here.

Need to enhance your points tally before the deadline? If so, you can earn 60 points for completing the Careers Award on Moodle!

This module covers all aspects of employability and usually takes 10-12 hours to complete.

For more information, see here.
Throughout February, the Careers Service will be running various events, including:

- 'Applying for a year in industry' workshop
- 'What are the options after I graduate?' workshop
- Coach trips
- Bitesize CV sessions
- Bitesize applications sessions
- Bitesize interview sessions
- Simple steps to help you find a job whilst you study workshop

You can claim 5-10 points for each session and further information can be found here.

MY EPS JOURNEY COMPETITION

Enter for your chance to win a £30 Amazon Voucher!

This competition will help you demonstrate to prospective employers the skills and experience you have gained through the EP Scheme

To enter simply create your own 'My EPS Journey' Reflective Journal on MyFolio and email the URL to the EP Team at employabilitypoints@kent.ac.uk

Entries must be received by 5pm on Friday 14 June 2019.
THE PSYCHOLOGICAL & BEHAVIOURAL CHARACTERISTICS OF MALE STUDENTS

School of Psychology – CORE-FP

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

DO YOU WANT TO WIN AN IPAD MINI 4 (WORTH £399)?

What will I have to do? In this short online study, you will be asked to respond to a selection of well-known and validated psychological measures. There are thirteen in total – some are short (less than five questions) whilst others are slightly longer.

Will my responses be anonymous? Yes, unless you choose to withdraw from the study. This means that you will not be identifiable from any answers you provide, so please be honest. Under no circumstances will any answers you provide be passed on.

What will I get for taking part? In return for participating in this study, you will be offered the opportunity to enter a prize draw to win an iPad Mini 4 (currently valued at £399). Psychology students who access the study through the RPS site will also receive 1 RPS credit for completing the study in full.

Further information
Samuel Hales (PI)
T: +44 (0)1227 827370
E: sth21@kent.ac.uk

Prof. Theresa A. Gannon (Co-I)
T: +44 (0)1227 824827
E: T.A.Gannon@kent.ac.uk

Access the survey at

bit.ly/forensic_psychology

SeNSS University of Kent

All posters displayed on campus have been looped and will be removed by the PI no later than 30th April 2013.
Volunteering opportunities in Medway:

Age UK are looking for kind and competent volunteers across Medway to support elderly clients engaging in day trips, helping them with transport and socialising during the trip. A lunch is usually provided and a DBS check is required. Donate your time, engage in conversations and you can help make a difference to the wellbeing of the elderly clients just by listening. Please contact volunteering@kent.ac.uk if you would like more information.

Help the Campus Chaplain with opening Bargain Corner - a space selling good quality pre-loved winter clothing, bedding and household items for students, especially those that have newly arrived or are moving to new accommodation at affordable prices.

If you care about recycling, your environment, and helping your fellow student, come along to help out. For more information, please contact Lynne Martin on medwaycampuschaplain@gre.ac.uk

Do you have an idea for a volunteer activity? Did you know that GK Unions can help fund your volunteer activity? Whether you plan to run it on or off campus, as a long-term commitment or an one-off event, through a society or individually, we can help! Get in touch with volunteering@kent.ac.uk for the form or to discuss ideas.

Student Volunteering Week - Thank you to all the students who took part in our Student Volunteering Week Activities! Any voluntary activities you did both on or off campus can be logged through the Toolkit, in addition to earning Employability Points on MyFolio.
Kent Student Award Nominations are now open!

If you know an outstanding student, you can nominate them for a Kent Student Award here!

Monthly Competition Winner

Well done to Lily Frenais (Kent Business School) who logged 210 points in January!

In second place was Alina Sajish (Kent Business School) with 115 points and third place, Jemima Conran (Kent Business School) with 75 points.

Lily was awarded with a £10 Amazon voucher and certificate.

Also, for this month, as it is so close to our annual deadline, the highest scoring student will win a £30 Amazon voucher! Make sure you get logging!
Do you need more help gaining points before the 2019 deadline (18th March 2019)? If so, contact us via employabilitypoints@kent.ac.uk to book a 1-1 tutorial.