Fee status
A student’s fee status may be classified as either ‘home (UK/EU)’ or ‘overseas’ fees. This status is determined by the university in light of information and documentary evidence provided by the applicant.

Categories used in the assessment
There are 11 categories under which an individual could be classified as a ‘home’ fee payer. Please see the UK Council of International Student Affairs (UKCISA) website for detailed information on the criteria for each category. https://www.ukcisa.org.uk/Information--Advice/Fees-and-Money/England-fee-status#layer-6082

How to fill out the questionnaire
Please provide all the information requested clearly and giving as much information as possible. We will use this information to determine whether you will be a ‘home’ or ‘overseas’ fee payer.

Please also provide all the documentary evidence requested. If we do not receive the requested information or documents, then we will need to request this again, and your fee status assessment will be delayed.

What to do if you do not agree with your assessed fee status
If you do not agree with the assessment we make, you will have to chance to appeal the decision. To do this, you can contact us at financialaid@kent.ac.uk giving the reasons why you feel the assessment is wrong, which category you think you fit, and supplying documentary evidence where applicable.
Countries within the EU and EEA and British Overseas Territories
