KENT LAW CAMPAIGN
GIVING ACCESS TO JUSTICE A NEW HOME

Quiet Phase Report 2011-13

www.kent.ac.uk/lawcampaign
Welcome

A message from the Chair of the Kent Law Campaign

“Fantastic news”

And why is this fantastic news? Because, we have reached almost two thirds of our Campaign target and so we can – and will – now go very LOUD indeed in order to raise the remaining funds to make the new Law Clinic and Moot Court a reality.

Firstly, a high decibel “thank you” to everybody whose contributions are recorded in the pages that follow; and most especially to:

• Our numerous and generous donors, and particularly, of course our two major benefactors, The Hon Charles Wigoder and Dr Kennedy Wong;
• The Kent Law School’s amazing students for their award-winning efforts on behalf of the Campaign;
• The University for its commitment to match pound for pound everything that we are able to raise;
• Our Patrons and my fellow Campaign Board members;
• Staff from the Kent Law Clinic and the Kent Law School
• Hilary Edridge and Anna Pollard from the Development Office, whose unflagging optimism has kept our spirits up, when (just occasionally) we wondered whether it would really be possible to raise the philanthropic funds we required.

Secondly though, an even more ear-splitting message to all of you who have not yet supported the Campaign, perhaps because you were, very understandably, waiting to see whether it really could succeed. Rest assured; it certainly will. So, hold back no longer! Please pledge or donate now by visiting the Campaign website www.kent.ac.uk/lawcampaign. If that’s not possible, then at the very least, please join us at one of the Campaign events which we are planning to hold over the course of the next twelve months.

These will start with the Kent Law Campaign Public Launch on Wednesday 6th November, 2013 in London at The Gherkin; will include a Canterbury Legal Walk in June, 2014 and will extend, and become part of, the celebrations which the University is planning to mark its 50th Anniversary.

Thank you for your generosity, your continued support and for being part of the community which continues to improve the University of Kent.

Overview
The Kent Law Campaign, a £5million fundraising project to build a new home for the Kent Law Clinic and the Law School’s Mooting Programme, is preparing to leave the Quiet Phase of the campaign cycle and move into the very exciting Public Phase. The Quiet Phase provided us with an opportunity to complete our plans, build a strong Kent Law School alumni community and test potential donors’ receptiveness to supporting the Law School’s goals. In any capital campaign it is traditional to secure half the funds required before the public launch, so this initial work with alumni and friends was crucial in securing ‘leadership gifts’ and pledges. We are now pleased to announce that we have exceeded the first phase target of £2.5million and are planning to move into the next phase of the Campaign in the autumn.

Fundraising
During the Quiet Phase of the Campaign, we have raised £3.3million (including Gift Aid and the University’s match) through generous gifts from our alumni, staff, friends of the University, Trusts and Foundations, companies and our students. We would like to thank everybody who has donated to the Campaign to date, your support really is helping to bring our vision to reality.

FUNDRAISING

2013 Telephone Fundraising Campaign

For four weeks from the end of February, the University’s 2013 Telephone Campaign took place with a team of current students calling approximately 2,000 alumni around the UK to talk to them about their time at Kent and ask for their support for various student-focused initiatives.

A number of the callers were current Kent Law School students who specifically targeted our law alumni to tell them about the Law Campaign and seek their support. During this initiative £5,000 was raised for the Campaign which has provided a great deal of energy and momentum as we progress towards the public launch of the Kent Law Campaign.

Sponsored events

A number of our supporters have raised substantial amounts of money through taking part in sponsored events. Anna Pollard (K98 and the University’s Campaigns Manager) ran the 2012 London Marathon and raised over £3,500. Natalie Salunke (E02) and Darren Ellis (Corporate Events Officer at the University) took part in a skydive and as a team raised in excess of £3,000. Hannah Bignell (K10) swam the equivalent of the English Channel over 10 days and in a local swimming pool raising £1,500 and a team of 16 alumni, students, staff and friends took part in the Three Peaks Challenge, a gruelling trek to climb the three highest mountains in Scotland, England in Wales within 24 hours and raised the magnificent sum of £8,350. Other events included the Thames Path Challenge (a 50km walk along the River Thames), the 30 Day Challenge (giving up alcohol!) and a sponsored walk from Canterbury to Whitstable.

Of her challenge, Hannah Bignell said: “I was the Chair of the Kent Law Campaign Student Committee 2012/13 and decided to leave the University with a splash by swimming 22 miles in the local pool over a period of 10 days; this is equivalent to the width of the English Channel. The challenge was extremely tiring and I found it incredibly tough at times but I just knew that I had to keep on swimming to achieve my personal and fundraising goals. The Law Campaign presents amazing opportunities that will benefit everyone who gets involved; students, colleagues and the community. The Clinic is an asset, not only to the University of Kent, but to society and it gives students first-hand experiences of what law is like in reality. The mooting programme allows individuals to develop and enhance their advocacy skills. The result of this project will allow these invaluable experiences to expand and grow and I feel honoured to have been a part of it.”

Julia Mansi (E08) and Daniel Malynn (K07) will be taking part in a sponsored skydive later this year, Emily Smith (Kent Law Campaign Student Committee Chair 2013/14) and Callum Borg (2012/13 Committee Member) have signed up to run the Brighton Half Marathon in February 2014 and Alice Scott (recent KLS graduate) will be running the Brighton Marathon in April 2014. Preparations are currently underway for a 5km fun run on campus and a 10km Legal Walk around Canterbury. If you are interested in taking part in either of these events or would like to take part in your own challenge event, please contact Anna Pollard, A.J.Pollard@kent.ac.uk or 01227 824670.
FUNDRAISING CONT

Kent Law Campaign Student Committee and the Young Alumni Fundraising Group

These two committees were established to raise awareness of the Campaign amongst our current students and recent graduates and they have set themselves a joint fundraising target of £50,000 (including the University’s match). To date they have raised £25,000 towards their goal.

During the Quiet Phase they have raised funds through comedy nights, quiz nights, pub nights, summer fetes, season’s greetings cards and calendars, a cops and robbers party, bachelor of the year auction and the inaugural Law Ball held at the Kent County Cricket Ground. This event alone raised £3,400 and was attended by 240 students, staff, alumni, local lawyers and barristers.

The work of the Student Committee has been so exceptional that they were awarded the “Best New Society/Student Led Volunteering Group of the Year Award” at the annual Kent Union Awards held in May 2013. Similarly, Hannah Bignell, Chair of the Committee, was awarded The Chancellor’s Prize for her outstanding contribution to a University initiative.

The University is proud of everything that these committees have achieved and we would like to thank them for all their hard work and dedication to the Campaign.

Gifts-in-Kind

Many organisations prefer to donate to charities through gifts-in-kind and we are most grateful to a number of companies who have chosen to support the Kent Law Campaign in this way. CardsMadeEasy (2011 and 2012) and London Road Press Ltd (2011) generously donated season’s greetings cards to the Kent Law Campaign Student Committee to sell in aid of the Campaign and Headley Brothers Limited provided 2013 calendars. Through these initiatives the students were able to raise £2,800. Heater Meals UK, The Falstaff Hotel and Essentials (the campus shop) provided provisions for the Three Peaks Challenge and Maypole Marquees Ltd provided t-shirts for our sponsored event participants and our student committee. We thank them for their generosity.

Used stamp appeal

In December 2011, we launched an appeal to collect used postage stamps which are exchanged for a donation to the Campaign by JetStamps. To date, we have raised £230 through this initiative and urge you to support us by sending your used stamps to Anna Pollard, Campaigns Manager, Development Office, The Registry, The University of Kent, Canterbury, Kent. During the Quiet Phase of the Campaign we have increased our alumni relations activity considerably and have held a regular programme of events to involve our alumni, students and friends of the University in our exciting plans for the future. They have included lectures in both London and Canterbury, informal pub nights, formal networking receptions and sponsored events.

We were also pleased to hold the launch event for the Kent Law School’s Professional Mentoring Scheme established by Kent alumnus, Madelaine Power (K06). The scheme pairs our current students with alumni in practise to offer informal guidance and an objective viewpoint on the current jobs market. The mentors are all drawn from the legal profession and have been able to offer invaluable advice to our students.
