

Society for the Social History of Medicine Conference Programme (DRAFT as at Feb 15, 2016)
University of Kent, Canterbury
7th-10th July 2016

Day One: Thursday 7th July
Registration will be in Keynes College

12.00-2.00pm	Registration	Keynes Atrium Foyer
2.00-2.30	Welcome	Keynes Lecture Theatre 1 (KLT1)
	Welcome – Julie Anderson (Organising Committee) and Carsten Timmermann (SSHM)
2.30-4.00pm	Session 1
Panel A	A Place for our Illness: Becoming a Patient in Asylums, Resorts, and Sanitoriums, 1880-1960.
	Chair: Ulrike Thoms
	Oliver Falk Sylvelyn Hähner-Rombach Ylva Söderfeldt	Beyond the “The Magic Mountain”: The first German diabetes asylum (1931-1960). “It is better an insubordinate does not come to the sanatorium”: Becoming a TB-patient in the pre-antibiotic era. “Hay hay!” Heligoland and the Emergence of the Allergic.
Panel B	Religion and Medicine Across Cultures and Places.
	Chair: TBC
	Rebecca Noble Ogechukwu Ezekwem Elizabeth O’Brien	Missionary Madness in Bourbon Mexico. Religion, Culture, and the Practice of Medicine in Nigeria: African Independent Churches and the Socio-Cultural Influences on Faith Healing. In Search of the Soul: The Religious Origins of the Caesarean Section Operation in the New World.
Panel C	Incorrigible Drunkards: Spaces, places and cultures of female alcohol abuse in the nineteenth century.
	Chair: Barry Doyle
	Lesley Hulonce Kate Taylor Craig Stafford	Performing female drunkenness in nineteenth-century South Wales. Heart-Changes: The Moral Techniques Used by the Salvation Army in the Treatment of Female Inebriates, 1896-1901. ‘The Worst Woman in Rochdale’: Mary Kelly and Female Drinking Networks in Mid-Victorian Rochdale.

Panel D	Sites of Reproductive Decision Making
	Chair: TBC
	Clare Parker Kate Law Gayle Davis	Is there a Doctor in the House? Abortion and Medical Decision-Making in Parliament. Own Goal? The British Anti-Apartheid Movement and South Africa's resignation from the International Planned Parenthood Federation, c. 1984-1987. The Politics of Reproductive Travel in Later-Twentieth Century Britain.
Panel E	Scientific and Medical Environments for Women
	Chair: TBC
	Tom Quick Jimmy Elaine Wilkinson Meyer Emily A. Seitz	A Tool of Emancipation? British Women Microscopists and the technical language of professionalism (1860-1895). Women's Networks and Medicinal Environments. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v. Susan Jones and the Training of the First Women Physicians in the United States.
Panel F	The Politics and Finance of Health Spaces: From the National to the Local
	Chair: TBC
	Andy Holroyde Barry Doyle Rob Ellis	The Provision of Sheltered Employment for Disabled People in Post-War Britain. 'The Shape of things to Come': The politics of planning new hospitals in interwar England and France. London County Council, its Mental Health Policy and the Politics of International Consultation.
Panel G	Diseases, Spaces and Services
	Chair: TBC
	Mary Augusta Brazelton Storm Graham Claas Kirchhelle	Situating Immunology in Southwest China, 1937-1945. Biopolitics and Modernity: Smallpox Inoculations and the Prussian Sanitation College, 1755-1786. The Colindale Typers: Bacteriophages and the British Public Health Laboratory Service.
Panel H	Geographical and health boundaries
	Chair: TBC
	Kyle T. Evered Saara-Maija Kontturi Maria Pirogovskaya	Mapping Provinces and populations: The socio-medical geography of early republican Turkey. Medical Spheres: Boundaries of Health Car Accessibility in Finland c. 1750-1850. Sanitary Complaints in Late Imperial Russia: Making Hygiene Public and Reconstructing the Social Ladder.
Panel I
4.00-4.30pm	Coffee

4.30-5.30pm	Session 2
Panel A	Putting Shit in its Place: Excremental Politics in the Twentieth Century
	Chair: Emma Purce
	Chris Pearson Neil Pemberton	'Teach him the gutter': Public Health and the Excremental Politics of Dog Mess in Paris c. 1977-2009. 'Poo(h) in the Park: Dirt, Parasitism and the Making of the Modern Dog.
Panel B	Places, Psychology and Pilots
	Chair: Paul Ketley
	Natasha Feiner Lynsey Shaw Cobden	Up in the Air: Pilot Fatigue and the Workplace, 1954-1973. The Modernisation of Medicine: Industrial Psychology and the Selection of Royal Air Force Flying Personnel, 1939-1945.
Panel C	Spaces and Seafaring
	Chair: Jack Davies
	Hana Oh Tim Carter	A Naval Surgeon's Journey Across the Pacific: Alexander Rattray and the Development of his Medical Thoughts. Port and Ocean: Place, Risk and Infectious Diseases in British Merchant Seafarers 1900-1960.
Panel D	Places of Consumption
	Chair: Emily Bartlett
	Sam Goodman Stephen Mawdsley	'View Halloo!': Space, Place, and Alcohol Consumption in Colonial British India. Place, Patent Medicine, and Paralysis: A Case Study of Jamacia Ginger.
Panel E	Sites of human-animal interaction
	Chair: Chloe Trainor
	Abigail Woods Julie Hipperson	Doctors in the Zoo: Connecting Human and Animal Health in British Zoological Gardens, c. 1860-1900. Small Spaces for Small Animals: Vets, Pets, and the gendering of veterinary medicine in Britain, c. 1950-1980.
5.45-6.45pm	Keynote Lecture: Steve Study
	Decision space: diagnostics, tests and the growth of the medical-industrial complex
	Chair: Ulf Schmidt
6.45-7.45pm	Wine Reception and Buffet
	Sponsored by the Centre for Medicine, Ethics, and Medical Humanities.

--	--	--

Day Two: Friday 8th July 2016

9.00-10.30	Session 3
Panel A	The Household as a Medical Space in Late Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century England
	Chair: Lisa Smith
	Katherine Allen Sally Osborn Anne Stobart	Textual Spaces in Eighteenth-Century Domestic Medicine: The Evolving Material History of the Manuscript Recipe Collecting Tradition. The Social Life of Recipes: Network of Medical Knowledge in the Eighteenth Century 'What hearbs are best to be gathered in March and April': Linking Kitchen and Garden Spaces in Early Modern Household Healthcare.
Panel B	The Spaces of Forensic Medicine: A Comparative Perspective
	Chair: Hilary Marland
	Willemijn Ruberg Katherine Watson Sandra Menenteau	Space and Dutch Forensic Medicine (1800-1930). Place, Space and Anglo Welsh Forensic Practice. The Morgue Antechambers: When French Doctors Were Practicing Forensic Medicine (19 th Century France).
Panel C	Places for Representation of the Body in Visual Culture
	Chair: TBC
	Camilla Mørk Røstvik Beatriz Pichel Laura Piccand Gemma Almond	The Painters are In: The History of Menstruation in Art and Advertising in the 20 th and 21 st Century. Medicine in the Photographic Studio. Photographing Growth: The Discipline of Anthropometric Photography.
Panel D	Sites of Mental Illness
	Chair: TBC
	Michael Robinson Jennifer Farquharson Louis Hide	Forgotten Casualties of the Great War: The English and Irish Asylum during the First World War. Citizens and Soldiers: Marginalised in the Scottish Asylum, 1914-1934. Unlocking the Wards: How the 'open-door' policy re-shaped the meaning of space in English psychiatric hospitals, 1945-1960s.
Panel E	Soldiers and Seamen: Therapeutic Hospital Spaces

	Chair: TBC
	Erin Spinney Kristin D. Hussey Julia Neville	Inside the War: Everyday Experiences at the Intersection of Medicine and Domesticity in 18 th -Century British Naval Hospitals. Imperial Patients in the Global City: Patrick Manson, the Seamen's Hospital Society and networks of clinical material in late Victorian London. 'The wounded men... spoke of the Exeter hospitals as Paradise': The Patients' Experience of a stay in a first-line English War Hospital during the First World War.
Panel F	Places for Therapies Chair: TBC
	Hui-hua Chang Anu Rissanen Ayesha Nathoo	Regimen: An Innovative Therapy for the Elites in Classical Greece. OUTSIDE! Outdoor Therapies in Finnish formal and informal mental care 1880-1960s. Training to Relax in Postwar Britain.
Panel G	Spaces and the Aetiology of Diseases Chair: TBC
	Ryosuke Yokoe Fabrice Cahen William Leeming and Ana Barahona	'From the laboratory to the population sample': Aetiological Conceptions of Liver Disease and their Sites of Production. A Local Disease? Congenital Hip Dislocation in Sights of the French Population Genetics 1945-1970. Synthesis and Convergence and the Diffusion of Cytogenetics: A Comparative Study of Canada and Mexico.
Panel H	Sites for Children: Good, Bad, and Diseased Chair: TBC
	Gabrielle Barr Robin Rohrer Fiachra Byrne	The British Child as a Charitable Figure. 'Total Care for the Whole Child': The Development of Psycho Social Support for Children with Cancer, 1930s to the Present. 'The Nutters Borstal': Psychotherapeutic and Disciplinary Space and Practice in Feltham Borstal, 1945-1973.
Panel I	Places of Surveillance Chair: TBC
	Agnes Arnold-Forster Claire L. Jones Akinobu Takabayashi	Cancer and Public Health in Nineteenth Century Britain. Penicillin, Prophylactics and Preventive Measure: The Bacteriologist and the Emergence of the Infection Control Committee in the British Hospital, 1947-1970. The 'Quantified Self' in History Clinical Thermometry in England between Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century.
11.00-12.00pm	Keynote Lecture: Alison Bashford Title TBC

	Chair: Carsten Timmermann
12.00-1.00pm	Lunch
1.00-3.00pm	Session 4
Panel A	Places of Cure: Hospitals
	Chair: TBC
	Pradipto Roy Sara Honarmand Ebrahimi Angharad Fletcher Erna Kurbegovic	Permeable Walls: The Many Worlds of Fever Hospital in Nineteenth Century Calcutta 'It all Seemed Welcoming to Mariam': The Architecture of the Church Missionary Society (CMS) Hospitals in Iran. 'Medical and Surgical Atrocities': The Early History of Hong Kong's Tung Wah Hospital, 1860-1900. 'With our Serbian Allies': Lady Pagent's Hospital in Serbia during the First World War.
Panel B	Roundtable: Locating Healthcare in the Home: The Experiences and Innovation of Nursing in the Domestic Sphere from the UK to New Zealand 1860 - 1960.
	Chair: Rosemary Wall
	Rima Apple Ciara Breathnach Linda Bryder Janet Greenlees
Panel C	Roundtable: Putting Medical History in its Place: Perspectives on Contemporary Curricular Approaches to the History of Medicine.
	Chair: TBC
	Helen Valier Heather R. Perry Elizabeth Toon Carsten Timmerman
Panel D	Spaces for Industrial Health
	Chair: TBC
	Steve Thompson Christopher J. Sirrs Judith Rainhorn Keir Waddington	Medicine, Place and Industrialisation: Merthyr Tydfil and Swansea in Comparative Perspective. Beyond the Workplace: The Expansion of British Health and Safety Regulation, c. 1946-1990. Mine Shaft: Experimenting Occupational Health Policy at a Local Scale? France, 19 th -20 th Century. 'Think Yellow and Smells Fearfully': Placing Industrial Waste, River Pollution and Sanitary Reform in Late Nineteenth Century Rural Wales.
Panel E	Sites for Medical Education

	Chair: TBC
	Bianca Oliveria Ferro, Raísa Maria Cunha Guimarães, Rodrigo Contrera Ramos Caroline Torres Ulrik Bak Kirk Maria Avxentevskaya	The Health Education and Promotion Agency of Sao Paulo State (SPES): Woman's Role in Spreading the Hygienist Discourse. Medical Education and the Multi Headed Hydra: Reimagining Post-War Medical Education within a Pedagogical Context. Examining a Fractured Foucaultian Framework – The Copenhagen School Medical Service. The Physician's Stammbuch: Humanist Spaces of Medical Networking.
Panel F	Places for Therapy: Asylums Chair: TBC
	Egidio Priani Rosemary Golding Diana Jefferies Shilpi Rajpal	The Spaces in the Venetian Asylums: Overcrowding, Chronicity, and Therapeutic Aims. 'Fortnightly winter entertainments in the dining hall; during the summer, in the airing grounds; and at all other times when required': Music and Moral Therapy in the Norfolk County Asylum. Seeking Asylum in Sydney after childbirth from the late Victorian to the post WWII period. Insanity, Institutions and Individuals: the Lunatic Asylums in Colonial North India, c. 1850-1950s.
Panel G	Sites of Science and Medicine Chair: TBC
	Manikarnika Dutta Elise Smith Karen Flint Elizabeth Neswald	Plague, Disease and Death: State of White Sailors in the Indian Port Cities – Calcutta and Bombay (1860-1900) "The End of Racial Science? Measuring Difference in the Torres Straits 1898-1899. Toils and Tensions of Empire: Indentured Employers and Indian Medical Officers in Natal, South Africa. Racial Metabolism Studies in the Field.
Panel H	Diseases Out of Place Chair: TBC
	Elma Brenner Mechthild Fend Patricia Marsh	Situating a 'New' Disease: Responses to the French Disease and its Sufferers, c. 1490-c. 1590. Petrifying! A Polish Hair Disease in Paris. 'Sleepy sickness spreads': Encephalitis Lethargica in Belfast.
3.30-5.00pm	Session 5
Panel A	The Personal Politics of Diagnostic Testing in Late 20th Century Britain.

	Chair: Alex Mold
	Jess Olszynko-Gryn Elizabeth Toon Hannah Elizabeth Kershaw	'We did pregnancy testing and it was very important to us in those days': The feminist appropriation of a biomedical technology in 1970s Britain. All women at risk: Cervical cancer tests, screening, and identity in 1980s Britain. Representing the test and its subjects: Depictions of HIV-antibody testing in British children's media, 1983-1997.
Panel B	Gendered Spaces of Education and Health in the Twentieth Century.
	Chair: TBC
	Samiksha Sehrawat Kathleen Vongsathorn Jane Hand	Medical Education and the Feminization of Empire: The Lady Hardinge Medical College (India) in the Gender Order of a Colonial Medical Profession. 'Information should radiate out': Maternity and Child Welfare Centres as Spaces of Education in Twentieth-Century Uganda. Advertising, gender and the place of consumerism in nutrition health education programmes in Britain, 1950s-1980s.
Panel C	The Place of Mental Health in Hospitals
	Chair: TBC
	Kate Grauvogel Chris Millard Clement Masakure	From asylum to apartment: overcoming stigma in the architecture of a Swedish mental hospital. The Ambivalence of Hospital Space: Emotional Health and Child Abuse (1945-1985). Mental patients in non-mental institutions: Major W. J. Cumper's experiences at Salisbury General Hospital and Salisbury Prison Hospital, 27 October 1954- 5 December 1954.
Panel D	Sanatorium Spaces
	Chair: TBC
	Anders Bank Lodahl Heini Hakosalo Yannis Stoyannidis	Skodsborg Badesanatorium – A Sanitarium on the Edge of Orthodox Medicine. The Walled-In Disease: The TB Sanatorium as a Lived Space in Finnish Patient Narratives (1910s-1960s). 'Unusual Business': Healing Tuberculars in Athens, 1900-1940.
Panel E	Medieval Spaces for Health and Illness
	Chair: TBC
	Winston Black Irina Metzler Katherine Harvey	The Medieval Confessional as a Medicalized Space. Scandal – Pollution – Exclusion: How the Medieval Church Reacted to Illness. The Place of the Prelate: Air, Environment, and the Preservation of Health in Medieval England.
Panel F	Landscapes and Environments
	Chair: Karen Jones
	Sophie Greenway Clare Hickman	From 'Dr Carrot' to 'Concrete Garden Making': Domestic Design, Health, and the Garden in Post-War Britain. Medical Teaching in its Place: The Botanic Garden as Classroom, 1768-1820.

	Stephanie Eastoe	'An expanse of asphalte [sic] ... had not the cheerful appearance of a garden': Landscape, health and care in the long-stay asylum.
Panel G	Mapping Places and Policy Chair: TBC
	Sally Sheard Martin Gorsky Lukas Engelmann	Health for All by the Year 2000: contested territorialities in the shaping of European health policy. World Health by Place: The Politics of International Health System Metrics, 1924-2000. The spatial politics of the Bubonic Plague: Maps, Geographic Reasoning and Epidemiological Knowledge.
Panel H	Healing in Alternative Cultural Spaces Chair: TBC
	Susan Aspinall Abimanyu Kumar Leila S. Al-Imad	The patient as an individual: Prescribing practice at the London Homeopathic Hospital, 1903-1915. Healing the Mind: Buddhist Response towards Anger. Human Embryology in Medieval Islamic Medicine.
5.00 – 6.00pm		SSHM AGM
Evening	Free evening in Canterbury

Day Three: Saturday 9th July 2016

9.00-10.30	Session 6
Panel A	Treating Madness in the Peripheries Chair: Jesper Vaczy Kragh
	Jari Eilola Anssi Halmesvirta Tuomas Laine-Frigren	Religion, Madness and Community in 17 th Century Finnish Parish. Consulting Madness in Finland, c. 1800-1914. Political Diagnoses? Treating Childhood Neuroses in Social Hungary in the Early 1960s.
Panel B	Spaces of Discipline

	Chair: TBC
	Nicholas Duvall Catherine Kelly Margaret Charleroy	'Disorder, Disillusion, and Disrepute': Medicine and the Prison Medical Service. Medicine, Law, and the Lash: Medical Discipline in the Australian Colonies. Medical Management of Prison Discipline and Health at Liverpool Borough Gaol.
Panel C	Unruly Climates: Medicine, Environment, and Society in the U.S. South and West
	Chair: Stephen Kenny
	Kathryn Olivarius Elaine LaFay Jacqueline D. Antonovich	Yellow Fever and 'Immunocapital': Becoming a Citizen of New Orleans, 1803-1853. 'The slandered torrid zone': Medicine, Botany, and the Imperial Vision of an American Tropics along the U.S. Gulf Coast, 1820-1840. Mapping a Healthy American West: Medical Women, Institution Building and Urban Development in Early Colorado, 1870-1930.
Panel D	Spaces for listening and reporting on health
	Chair: TBC
	Gillian Murray Andrew Black Jane K. Seymour	Listening to Community Business Practitioners: Developing a New Perspective on Scotland's Health and Welfare Matrix? 1980-1998. 'The Limits of "laissez-faire" public health': Britain's campaign to eradicate measles, 1968-1988. From the Medical Officer of Health annual reports for London to an alternative history of interwar public health.
Panel E	Roundtable: The Place of Digital History in Medicine
	Chair: Elaine Leong
	Justin Colson Erika Dyck Lauren Kassell Carsten Timmerman
Panel F	'Therapeutic' Spaces and Deviance
	Chair: TBC
	Catherine Cox and Hilary Marland Laura Sellers Andrea Bělehradová and Kateřina Lišková	'He puts on symptoms of incoherence: Prisoners, Mental Distress and Feigning Insanity in Nineteenth –Century English Prisons. Control and Disease: Medicine in the English Prison 1839-1855. 'We won't ban castrating pervs despite what Europe might think!': Czech Medical Sexology and the Practice of Therapeutic Castration.
Panel G	Disease and Environments
	Chair: TBC

	Frederick Stephenson Pavla Jirkova Sandra Guevara	Places of Crisis: Bubonic Plague in Hong Kong, 1894-1896. Situating and Moving Medicine: Doctor Arbilleur and the Plague Lazaretto of Prague in 1679/1680. Reconstructing Ancient Diseases: Cocoliztli in New Spain in 1545-1548.
Panel H	Locating Gender Chair: TBC
	Ashlee Bligh Jennie Brosnan Cynthia Paces	Gender, Locality, and Healthcare: The letters of Margaret Paston, c. 1440-1480. "Third Rate Men": Tall Poppy Syndrome, Medical Women, and their place in society. Nursing the Nation: Breastfeeding and National Politics in Bohemia at the fin-de-siècle
11.00-12.30	Session 7
Panel A	Communicating Public Health in Post-War Britain: The Place of the Public. Chair: Elizabeth Toon
	Daisy Payling Gareth Millward Alex Mold	'Everybody welcomes a sympathetic listener to the story of their ailments': Health and the Government Social Survey in 1940s Britain. 'She might want to be a nurse or an air hostess': Communicating with the public about smallpox vaccination in post-war Britain. 'Everybody likes a drink. Nobody likes a drunk': Alcohol, Health Education, and the Public in 1970s Britain.
Panel B	From Otology to Audiology: The medicalisation of hearing loss in its disciplinary and spatial contexts. Chair: Julie Anderson
	Graeme Gooday Coreen McGuire Sean McNally	Medicine and Mechanism: The co-evolution of otology and the 19 th -Century UK hearing aid industry. Inside the Chamber of Silence: Phyllis M. T. Kerridge's Standardisation of Audiometric Tests. 'Triumph' over Deafness: Acoumetric testing and the use of hearing aids to augment residual hearing.
Panel C	Places for Children Chair: TBC
	Susan Webster Ida Milne Leonieke Vermeer	Examining the silence about the health of children in state care in Victorian Australia. Diseased and Medical Care in the Irish School Place: The Patient Voice. The diary as a place of coping with disease and death of children.
Panel D	Collection Spaces and Sites of Display Chair: TBC
	Eva Åhrén Harriet Palfreyman	Going places with specimens: Mobility and the shifting geography of anatomical science in early nineteenth-century Europe. Pathology in Place: Representing Disease and the Diseased Body in Nineteenth Century Britain.

	Karen Jones	The rhinoceros and the Chatham railway: taxidermy & the production of animal presence in the great indoors.
Panel E	Places for Psychiatry
	Chair: TBC
	Sarah Phelan David Freis Max Gawlich	The Paradox of Military Psychiatry in the Second World War: From Personnel Selection to the Therapeutic Community. Diagnosing the Kaiser: Psychiatric assessments of Wilhelm II and the question of war guilt in post-war Germany, 1918-1927. ECT and its Devices: Psychiatric Therapy and Technological Conditions in Europe, 1938-1950.
Panel F	Cities of Cure
	Chair: TBC
	Laurinda Abreu Alexandra Claudia Manta Octavian Buda	Prioritising the locally-trained doctor: the impact of place in Portuguese Medicine. Eighteenth-Century Montpellier Vitalist Physiology and Provincial Medical Eclecticism: Is there such a thing as a “Southern” esprit scientifique? Placing Forensic Medicine in Urban Context: Criminal Anthropology in Bucharest, Eastern Europe, 1892-1942.
Panel G	Sites of Care: The Hospital
	Chair: TBC
	Lucy Barnhouse Stephen Kenny Edward Cheetham	Hospitals in the Late Medieval city: Examples from the Rhineland. ‘From the Reception of Diseased Negroes’? Place, space, and slave hospital. Healthcare Communities: the importance of locality in small town and village hospitals in Derbyshire, 1900-1939.
12.30 -1.30pm		Keynote Lecture: Graham Mooney Healing Spaces: Reflections on the Historical Geographies of Medical Practices. Chair: Julie Anderson
1.30-2.30	Lunch
2.30	SSHM Grand Afternoon Out

Day 4: Sunday 10th July

9.00-10.30	Session 8
Panel A	Sites of Childbirth
	Chair: TBC
	Marystella Renirez-Guerra Tizian Zumthurm Anna V. Belova Heather Sinclair	Prussian Hybridity in Midwifery Training. Adapting medical practices at the maternity ward of the Albert Schweitzer Hospital in Lambarene, Gabon, 1913-1965. Childbirth among Noblewomen and Training of Midwives in Russia of the Late 18th and Early 19th Centuries. White Parteras, the Birth of Modern American Midwifery in the U.S.-Mexico Borderlands, 1976-2000.
Panel B	Spas and Therapeutic Spaces
	Chair: TBC
	Katherine Foxhall James Camp Melina Kostidi Emine Evered	Monday Morning Migraine in the Pigeon House. Or, Glimpsing Illness in the Archive. The Questionable Elixir: Mineral and the Rise of the ‘Seventeenth Century’ Spa Towns. The Urban Space and the Public of Greek Spas (Mid 19th Century- Early 20th Century). The Therapeutic Landscapes of Early Republican Turkey.
Panel C	Spaces for Suffering, Recovery, and Rehabilitation
	Chair: TBC
	Lynda Payne Hannah Newton Walton Schalick Stephen Bance	‘Shunned as a loathsome object’: Space, place, and bedridden patients in early 19th-Century England. ‘Prison to Liberty’: Recovering from Illness in Early Modern England. ‘Patens Patients’: The Linguistic Space of the Long Suffering Patient. Polio in Ireland: Rehabilitation and Reintegration in the mid-twentieth century.
Panel D	Print and Place in Histories of Early Modern Medicine
	Chair: Jennifer Evans
	Sietske Fransen Elaine Leong Alexandra Bamji	Dissections in the theatre and on paper. ‘Placing’ a history vernacular medical print in early modern England. Ephemeral Print and Public Health in Early Modern Europe.
Panel E	Sites of Culture
	Chair: TBC
	Maria Tutorskaya Enda McCaffrey	Literature and Medicine Narrative of the Clinic Town in Moscow. Wheelchair Unbound: Heightened Sensoriality in Recent French Cinema.

	David Sowell Irina Ruvinsky	Medicine and Science Fiction: Yucatan, Mexico, Eduardo Urzaiz Rodriguez and the Rationalist Utopia of Eugenia (1919). The Culture Space of Illness: Death in the age of Reason.
Panel F	Domestic Spaces and Sites of Institutionalisation
	Chair: TBC
	Natalia Mitsyuk Eli Anders Stuart Wildman Alistair Ritch	Home Birth in Noble Families of Industrial Russia. Between Hospital and Home: Cultivating Domesticity in Victorian Convalescent Institutions. The Workhouse at Night: Place of Safety or Danger to the Sick. The Sick and Infirm ... are our charge': The medicalisation of English Provincial Urban Workhouses.
Panel G	Spaces for Disease
	Chair: TBC
	John Manton Kundai Manamere Amanda Hysted	National Health Planning in 1960s Africa: Framing the Developmental State as a Place of Health. 'Unfinished Agenda': WHO Global Malaria Eradication Campaign in Southern Rhodesia, late 1950s to 1965. The Location of Ebola: Finding the Right Tool for a Global Job.
Panel H	Sites for Surgery
	Chair: TBC
10.30-11.00am	Laura Neff Michael Brown Elena Berger	Triumphs Must be Chiefly Due to Their 'Skill': Surgical Norms, Imagined Communities and the Consolation of Surgical Practices. The Operating Theatre as Emotional and Physical Space in Early Nineteenth Century Britain. Places of Interest for a Surgeon: Ambroise Pare (1510-1590) and his Voyages.
11.00-12.30	Session 9
Panel A	Spaces of Illness and Places of Practice: Environment and Health in the Middle Ages
	Chair: Alexandra Bamji
	Joanna Phillips Sunny Harrison Iona McCleery	Travel Sickness: The Frontiers of Health for Crusaders in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Centuries. 'All marshals who bleed horses must transport the blood out of the city on pain of mandatory fine.': Locating Equine Illness and Healthcare in the Later Middle Ages. Problematizing Place, Disease and Diet in Early European Descriptions of West Africa.
Panel B	Situating Disability in British Industrial Histories
	Chair: Steven Thompson
	David M. Turner Mike Mantin Alexandra Jones	Locating Disability in the British Industrial Revolution. Disability in the Miner's Home, 1900-1948. Deformed Landscape, Disabled Industry: Disability Coalfields Literature.

Panel C	Suffering, Place and the Body of the Child from 1820-1939
	Chair: Beatriz Pichel
	Mary Clare Martin Helen Franklin Leticia Fernández-Fontecha Rumeu	Disease, Transnational Childhoods, and the “bodies” of indigenous and missionary children, 1820-1870. Stopping the Rot: The Establishment of Municipal Dental Provision for Schoolchildren in Edwardian London. From nervous conditions to nervous children: childhood and somatic pain in British medical discourse.
Panel D	Political Spaces for Women
	Chair: TBC
	Salim Al-Gailani Erika Dyck and Maureen Lux Samantha Caslin	The mothers of England object to it’: The notification of Pregnancy in Early Twentieth Century Britain. Place and Race: Canadian Aboriginal Women and the Politics of Reproduction in the 1970s. ‘Either you get no information, professional language or scare tactics’: Feminist efforts to demystify reproductive health and maternity care in 1970s and 1980s Liverpool.
	Places for Public Health
Panel E	Chair: TBC
	Geoffrey Hudson Leonard Smith Karen Kruse Thomas	Advocating for Full Citizenship: Disability, Health and Place in Canada, 1975-1985. Medical Care and Poor Relief in the Colonial Bahamas, 1810-1914. ‘The most studied people in the world’: How Baltimore shaped the Evolution of mid-twentieth century Public Health at the John Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health.
Panel F	Environments and Disease
	Chair: TBC
	Mohamed Qasim Toorani Maria Jesús Santesmases Julia Cummiskey	The Eradication of Smallpox in Bahrain. Fleming in Spain, 1948: Penicillin and the Politics of Public Acclaim. African Viruses in and out of Place: West Nile, Sika, and Chikungunya.
Panel G	Psychiatric Spaces
	Chair: TBC
	Hannah Proctor Martina Starnini Anna Kathryn Schoefert	Working through Utopia: the Non-Places of Anti-Psychiatry. Women in Male Fields: Nineteenth Century Italian Cultural and Psychiatric Attitudes towards Women and Madness. After the Asylum? Building new spaces for psychiatric research in late 1960s Bern.
12.30-1.30pm	Lunch

End of Conference *****