Working in a Environment of Change
A workshop is taking place on 16 December, to look at the process of organisational change, together with tools and techniques we might use when working in an uncertain and changing environment. Please book your place via Staff Connect.

International Men’s Day
Following our International Men’s Day panel discussion, the Athena SWAN team wishes to capture interest in the creation of a single parents’ network for Kent staff, in order to build a mutually supportive community of colleagues who share common challenges associated with being a working single parent. If you would like to be involved, please register your interest at athenaswan@kent.ac.uk.

Appraisal (RPD)
Appraisal (RPD) are mandatory for all staff. An Appraisal (RPD) session is taking place on 22 January. To provide insights into some of the skills required to make the most of an appraisal (RPD) discussion and understanding of objective setting. Please book your place via Staff Connect.
