News from the L&OD Team – any enquiries please contact us via email ldev@kent.ac.uk

Are you looking to update your CV or your interview skills L&OD are now offering 2 workshops delivered via a Moodle Module and MS Teams Workshop

CV Writing Skills

Pathways is a career development programme delivered via Moodle Modules & MS Teams Workshop. It provides colleagues within professional services departments the opportunity to explore their career pathway and support them with:
- Self-awareness
- Learn and develop new skills
- Explore and define their career pathways.

Interview Skills

Pathways Programme Includes :-
- Career Planning
  - Strengths and Development Needs
  - Signposting opportunities
  - Development Goals – Personal pathway
- CV Writing
  - What to include, what not to include
  - Personal statements
- Interview Skills
  - Making the application
  - What to expect and how to prepare
  - Giving a good interview
  - Personal presence
  - Structuring answers and questions
- Mock Interview and Feedback

Come and Join our MS Team HR-LOD Staff Training
This is a new place for information on the range of training and events that your L&OD Team offer and are running.
Click the image below and join our Team

Employee Apprenticeships News
If you would like more information contact Loretta Izod l.j.izod@kent.ac.uk

The Athena SWAN team hosted a ‘Parenting through lockdown’
This was an open session to anyone who is juggling work and parenting during the coronavirus lockdown.

The Learning & Organisational Development Team Newsletter
L&OD News 29th May 2020 (click on images to read articles)

News from our Organisation Partners

New Equality, Diversity & Inclusion Harassment Website
The University of Kent is committed to fostering a positive working environment where all staff and students are treated fairly, with dignity, courtesy, respect and consideration. We all have the responsibility to create an environment that is free from harassment and bullying. Therefore, we are pleased to announce that a new EDI Harassment website has been launched providing information on how to report incidents of harassment, how to become a Harassment Contact, as well as an up to date Harassment Contact list.

Please click here to subscribe to newsletter and Click here to follow the L&OD team on Twitter