Kent Law School has established a major fund to support students who are from or who have studied in Kenya, and who undertake a taught Masters in Law (LLM) at the Canterbury campus of the University of Kent.

- £2,500 award provided as a tuition fee discount to entrants to the taught LLM who are nationals of or have studied an undergraduate degree in Kenya
- Award automatically provided to eligible entrants
- Choice of 12 LLM specialisations, including International Commercial Law, International Law, Intellectual Property Law, Human Rights Law, and Environmental Law
- Study at one of the UK’s leading law schools – Kent is one of only 12 law schools ranked in the top 20 of all three major UK league tables for law
- World class culture of critical legal research – Kent was ranked 8th for Research Intensity in the most recent Research Excellence Framework (REF)

Find out more and apply
E: klspgoffice@kent.ac.uk
www.kent.ac.uk/law