Need help with your academic writing?
Want to improve your essay writing?
Want guidance with other types of writing e.g. book reviews, written assignments, reports…?

Diana Evans, our Royal Literary Fund Writing Fellow, is available by appointment to help…
• all students
• in any subject

Writing skills and techniques covered include:
• academic writing
• structuring and planning essays
• improving your style and use of language
• developing an argument
• editing and revising
• planning essays and assignments
• writing creatively

All sessions are one-to-one and confidential.

The Royal Literary Fellow is hosted by the Student Learning Advisory Service in UELT. Please see www.kent.ac.uk/learning for advice and guidance on all aspects of learning development and study skills.