

Politics @ Kent Day

Saturday 3 November 2018

Grimond Building, University of Kent, Canterbury campus

Programme

09:30 – 10:00 Registration and Refreshments in Grimond Foyer

Location: Grimond Lecture Theatre 2

10:00 – 10:10 Welcome from Dr Adrian Pabst, Head of School, and Dr Iain MacKenzie, Director of Recruitment and Admissions

10:10 – 11:15 Taster lectures on politics and international relations from colleagues representing British Politics, Conflict, IR and Political Thought – Dr Nadine Ansorg, Prof. Matthew Goodwin, Dr Jane O'Mahony, Dr Iain MacKenzie and Dr Ingvild Bode

11:15 – 11:30 Coffee Break in Grimond Foyer (with staff and student ambassadors)

Location: Grimond Lecture Theatre 2

11:30 – 12:15 Kent Question Time: your opportunity to ask questions about current issues and to debate with our staff

12:15 – 13:00 Buffet Lunch in Grimond Foyer, provided by the School

Location: Grimond Lecture Theatre 3

13:00 – 13:45 Student experience and student life talks for applicants with our student ambassadors

Location: Grimond Lecture Theatre 2

13:00 – 13:30 For parents there will be an employability, and student support talk

Coffee will be available from 1330 in the foyer

Location: Grimond Seminar Rooms 5, 6 and 7

13:50 – 15:20 Taster seminars for applicants on politics and international relations:

International Relations

British Politics

Conflict Analysis

15:20 Final Q&A with Recruitment Team

From 15:30 Campus tours on demand

FINDING YOUR WAY AROUND THE CAMPUS

