Anglican Research Resources

Anglican Church Websites in New Zealand

A directory of Anglican organizations in New Zealand and their websites.

Anglican Church Newspapers published in New Zealand and Polynesia

A list of newspapers published by the Anglican Church in New Zealand, both national publications, and those of dioceses.

Study Guide to the Anglican Communion Covenant

The study guide (available as a pdf document) from the Anglican Communion website (www.anglicancommunion.org) is intended for parishes, deaneries, dioceses or groups of individuals wishing to explore the Covenant and the way it describes Anglican identity. It contains the text of the Anglican Communion Covenant interspersed with summaries of the material.

Anglican clergy lists

The Blain Biographical Directory of Anglican Clergy in the Pacific

The Blain Biographical Directory of Anglican Clergy in the South Pacific includes biographical information on clergy and deaconesses of the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia : Te Haahi Mihinare ki Aotearoa ki Niu Tirenī, ki Moutere o Te Moana Nui a Kiwa from the beginning of the Church Missionary Society in New Zealand, up to 1930.

The Church of Melanesia was a diocese of the New Zealand Church until 1974, so its clergy are included up to that date.

CCEd Clergy of the Church of England Database

A collaborative project, funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council and bringing together scholars from King's College London, the University of Kent at Canterbury and the University of Reading. Its objective is to create a relational database documenting the careers of all Church of England clergymen between 1540 and 1835.

Crockford's Clerical Directory

Crockford's Clerical Directory, first published in 1858, contains biographies of over 26,000 Anglican clergy in the UK, details of English, Welsh and Irish benefices and churches and much more.

Missionary web sites

The Preece family website Missionaries and Pioneers tells the story of James and Mary Ann Preece and their descendants.
