CBCD Guest Lectures and Seminars - Spring 2017
Swingland Room, 11 - 13:00 (unless indicated)

Wednesday, January 18th (11 am)
Gemma Burford (Consultant Researcher): Local participation in ethnobotanical research: thinking in three dimensions

Wednesday, January 25th (11 am)
William Milliken (RBG Kew): Into the light: mobilising and exploring Richard Spruce’s ethnobotanical legacy from the 19th C. Brazilian Amazon

Friday January 27th (11 am)
Professor Patricia Howard (Wageningen, Kent, SRC): Gender and Ethnobiological knowledge systems

Wednesday, February 1st (11 am)
Lewis Daly (UCL): What kind of people are plants? The use of plant charms among the Makushi Amerindians of Amazonian Guyana

Wednesday, February 22nd (11 am in Ethnobiology Lab)
Mary Butcher (UK): Fiber Plants and Weaving

Wednesday, March 1st (11 am)
Professor Michael Heinrich (UCL School of Pharmacy): Pharmacology and the process of bringing plant-based medicines to the market

Wednesday, March 15th (11 am in KLT2)
Sukvinder Bhamra (Medway School of Pharmacy): Traditional herbal remedies used by South Asian Communities in the UK

Wednesday, March 29th (16:30 pm)
Susana Carro-Ripalda (Durham/Bilbao) Governing Agricultural Sustainability: Global Lessons from GM crops

Contact: Raj Puri (rkp@kent.ac.uk)   Tel: 01227-823148