CBCD Guest Lectures and Seminars - Spring 2018
Wednesdays, 11 - 13:00
Variable locations - see below

Wednesday, November 8th (11 am)
Simon Platten (Tamar Grow Local, Cornwall): Building a local food system using learning from social and ecological systems: 10 years of Tamar Grow Local

Wednesday, January 17th (11 am) CNW SR 6
Jonathan Loh (Kent): Recent Trends in Global Biological and Linguistic Diversity

Wednesday, January 24th (11 am) KLT5
Sarah van der Meer (Kent): Beachcombing in the Plastic Age

Wednesday, January 31st (11 am) CNW SR 6
Prof. Patricia Howard (Wageningen, Kent, SRC): Biodiversity Tipping Points

Wednesday, February 14th (11 am) CNW SR 5
Oana Ivan (Kent alum): Conflicts between fishing and conservation in the Danube Delta (Film showing and discussion).

Wednesday, February 21st (11 am in Ethnobiology Lab)
Mary Butcher (UK): Fiber Plants and Weaving

Wednesday, February 28th (11 am) JS1
Prof. Michael Heinrich (UCL School of Pharmacy): Pharmacology and the process of bringing plant-based medicines to the market

Wednesday, March 14th (11 am) KS13
Dario Novellino (Kent): Advocacy and Anthropology in the Philippines

Wednesday, March 28th (11 am) KS13
Sukvinder Bhamra (Medway School of Pharmacy): The use of herbal medicines by migrant communities in the UK

Contact: Raj Puri (rkp@kent.ac.uk) Tel: 01227-823148