Design Our Space student competition terms and conditions

All entrants agree to be bound by the terms and conditions outlined below.

Closing date: 5 June 2019, 11.59pm

Who can enter: The competition is open to all students currently enrolled at the University of Kent. Entrants agree that this competition is only open to currently enrolled students at the University of Kent, and that any entrant that does not fit this criteria will be automatically disqualified.

How to submit your entry: Please submit your artwork to sportsenquiries@kent.ac.uk via WeTransfer.com. Include your full name. Submissions must include a budget proposal showing a breakdown of anticipated expenditure incurred in implementing your design if it is the winning entry.

Artwork entered in the competition must not be defamatory, obscene, illegal, infringe any third party intellectual property rights, or otherwise negatively reflect upon the University of Kent, its staff or students.

By submitting artwork to this competition, the entrant(s):

i) Agrees to abide by the competition terms and conditions

ii) Warrants that the artwork is his/her original work (see terms and conditions OWNERSHIP RIGHTS IN SUBMISSIONS) and

iii) Understands and accepts that all entries become the property of the University of Kent (see terms and conditions INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS IN ENTRIES).

OWNERSHIP RIGHTS IN SUBMISSIONS

Entrant must have all ownership rights in and to his/her submission(s). By submitting an entry, the entrant represents and warrants that the content of the artwork is his/her original work and that no other person or entity has any ownership interest in the work or is entitled to any payment for the use of the work. Entrant’s entry must not have been submitted in any other competition or previously published. The University of Kent reserves the right to void and/or disqualify any submission, if found at the University of Kent’s sole discretion to be plagiarized, copied, or fraudulent; to infringe upon existing rights of others; or to be incomplete, damaged, obscene, vulgar, offensive or otherwise unsuitable. The University of Kent assumes that all entries are original and are the works and property of the Entrant, with all rights granted there-in. The University of Kent is not responsible for incorrect information provided that misrepresents the intellectual property rights of original ownership of ideas.

The University of Kent is not liable for violations of any third-party rights, including, but not limited to, claims of copyright, trademark, patent infringement, defamation, trade secrets, or trade dress on the part of the entrant.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS IN ENTRIES

By submitting an entry, each Entrant agrees that the University of Kent shall own the entry (including all intellectual property related to or embodied in such design) and that the Entrant has relinquished all intellectual property in the entry to the University of Kent. The University of Kent reserves all rights related to the entries, including the rights to edit, publish, use, adapt, exploit, modify, copy, disseminate, post, or dispose of the entries, online, in print or in any other media for advertising and promotional or other purposes, or license others to do so, without compensation or notification to the respective.

Budget
Kent Sport, along with Creative Campus, will contribute up to £3,000 towards the project for the successful winning entry. This financial support is only available until the end of June 2019. All expenditure for the Design Our Space project must be completed by 30 June 2019. Funding for this project will not be available after that date. Expenditure must be reviewed and approved by Kent Sport in advance. The cost of installing the winning submission should not exceed £2,400.

Implementation

The winning artwork submission will be implemented in consultation with Kent Sport. The winning student must be available to facilitate the installation of their design in June.

Judging and prizes

A panel of judges will review all submissions and select the best design. Judges will include Kent Sport Senior Management team, Creative Campus and representatives of the facility user groups. Kent Sport decision will be final.

The winning participant will be able to transform the space and see their design in use and will receive a £300 Amazon voucher and a meal for two at the Pavilion Café Bar. The runner up will receive a £150 Amazon voucher. Five random entries will receive a Kent Sport goody bag including a £10 Amazon voucher. Winning entrants will be notified in June 2019.
