Make your voice heard by joining our

HUMAN MICROPHONE

*“Since each of us was several, there was already quite a crowd”
– D&G, Anti-Oedipus –*

Join us for a series of collaborative performances inspired by Gandhi and harnessed by the horizontal protest groups of Occupy at Wall Street. The Human Microphone creates a space for us to speak as individuals, but also speak as a community. To come together and amplify each other's voices. To make the 'invisibles' visible. To celebrate disability and challenge disablism. To come together as one and speak for the many.
