

Assessment Design Cycle

1. Define what you want students to learn
2. Design appropriate learning outcomes using level descriptors
3. Decide how students can best show they have achieved these learning outcomes
4. Choose the most appropriate assessment method
5. Design assessment criteria and feedback format based on the learning outcomes and task
6. Engage in a dialogue with students about feedback and what you want students to learn