Singing and Musicianship (1)

The programmes of study to which the module contributes Foundation Degree in Professional Acting

The intended subject specific learning outcomes and, as appropriate, their relationship to programme learning outcomes
At the end of this module the student will:
• Be able to demonstrate solo and ensemble singing in an acting situation
• Be able to sing in character
• Be able to perform a range of technically demanding songs using skills learnt

These specific learning outcomes are designed to develop the individual’s ability to sing in character, both solo and as part of an ensemble and to develop a repertoire of songs for audition.

The intended generic learning outcomes and, as appropriate, their relationship to programme learning outcomes
• Physical skills
• Safe working practice
• Creative and imaginative skills

These learning outcomes develop the individual’s physical and technical skills. Students will also be expected to use their creative and imaginative skills in order to sing in character. Health and safety is an important part of this module to ensure that the individual is able to support and protect the singing voice in rehearsal and performance.
A synopsis of the curriculum

- Technical exercises
- Ensemble singing
- Acting and singing

Indicative Reading Lists

Learning and Teaching Methods, including the nature and number of contact hours and the total study hours which will be expected of students, and how these relate to achievement of the intended learning outcomes

This module comprises of 50 hours of study, approximately broken down as follows:

- 40 hours of class work
- 10 hours of private study.

In achieving the learning outcomes for this module, students will work with LAMDA tutors in tutor led class work. All classes are practical in support of the vocational nature of this programme of study. Many of the classes are taught in small quarter groups and students receive individual singing tutorials. At the end of the module, students will receive a one to one tutorial to review the work achieved and to set goals for future improvements.

Assessment methods and how these relate to testing achievement of the intended learning outcomes

- 100% continuous assessment measured against the learning outcomes (tests all of the learning outcomes).

There is one formal assessment point in this module, at the of the Autumn term. Assessments are carried out on a range of relevant activities such as class work, rehearsals and showings.

Students are graded on a 1 – 15 scale (1 = fail/15 = Outstanding) for each piece of assessed work. 4 is the minimum pass mark. Two marks are awarded for each assessment by the class tutor. The first mark is for aptitude towards the work, the second mark is for achievement. Each mark carries equal weight.

At the end of the term, the teaching staff, with the Head of Department, will meet to discuss the students work and achievement, agreeing to award an overall grade.

At the end of the module, the senior teaching staff meets to agree the final overall module mark, at an internal examination board.

If a student were to fail the module, they would have to retake the module. This cannot be done in isolation, so students are expected to restart the programme. All the modules within this programme of study are interlinked and much of the work is based with the group and its inter-relation. A student must take all the modules within a year at the same time in order to benefit from this learning experience.

Implications for learning resources, including staff, library, IT and space

This module is currently running within the academy and therefore all learning resource implications are already addressed.
A statement confirming that, as far as can be reasonably anticipated, the curriculum, learning and teaching methods and forms of assessment do not present any non-justifiable disadvantage to students with disabilities

LAMDA is satisfied that this module can be delivered to all students regardless of disability. LAMDA currently makes use of learning agreements to ensure all students are supported to achieve the learning outcomes.
