    - Directing the Story by Francis Glebas, Routledge, 2008
12. Learning and teaching methods

Students undertake direct instruction from tutors in a studio environment to introduce theory and practice. Knowledge and understanding is explored through practical examples in the studio, using examples, demonstrations and analysing student work in the context of the underlying theories and supported by exercises and directed reading, an approach similar to ‘action learning’ [https://www.heacademy.ac.uk/knowledge-hub/action-learning-0]. Practice and practical work is supervised by tutors and supported by studio assistants. Additional materials and support is provided through the VLE.

Tutor-led studio sessions: 135 hours
Studio assistant supported practice: 45 hours
Directed study: 120 hours

13. Assessment methods

13.1 Main assessment methods

Coursework 60%
This is a practical project the production of a storyboard sequence. (LO 8.1, 8.2, 8.3, 8.4, 9.1)
Reflective Log (3000 words) 30% (LO 8.1, 8.2, 9.1)
Individual presentation (15 minutes) 10% (LO 8.1, 8.2, 8.3, 8.4, 9.2)

13.2 Reassessment methods

15. Inclusive module design

The Collaborative Partner recognises and has embedded the expectations of current disability equality legislation, and supports students with a declared disability or special educational need in its teaching. Within this module we will make reasonable adjustments wherever necessary, including additional or substitute materials, teaching modes or assessment methods for students who have declared and discussed their learning support needs. Arrangements for students with declared disabilities will be made on an individual basis, in consultation with the Collaborative Partner’s disability/dyslexia student support service, and specialist support will be provided where needed.

16. Campus(es) or centre(s) where module will be delivered

   Escape Studios.

17. Internationalisation

   Storyboarding and previsualisation is an international discipline, and learning resources, materials and directed learning will include resources, examples and case studies from across the world.

18. Partner College/Validated Institution

   Escape Studios, Pearson College London

19. University School responsible for the programme

   Engineering & Digital Arts
